GAME 12: ALABAMA (11-0, 7-0 SEC)

vs. AUBURN (7-4, 3-4 SEC)

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 27 • 1:30 P.M. • CBS

JORDAN-HARE STADIUM (87,451) • AUBURN, ALA.

THE GAME: The No. 2/3 University of Alabama football team visits the plains for the final regular-season game of the 2009 season on Friday, November 27, against the Auburn Tigers. It will be the 74th meeting between the two schools in a series that dates back to 1893. The game is scheduled for a 1:30 p.m. (CST) kickoff at Jordan-Hare Stadium and will be televised by CBS with Craig Bolerjack and Steve Beuerlein calling the action. Eli Gold, Phil Savage and Barry Krauss will have the radio call on the Crimson Tide Sports Network.

HEAD COACH NICK SABAN: Alabama head coach Nick Saban (Kent State, 1973) is in his third season with the Crimson Tide. He was named the school's 27th head coach on January 3, 2007. Saban has compiled a 121-50-1 (.706) record as a collegiate head coach with a 30-8 (.789) mark at Alabama that includes an 11-0 record this year with a 7-0 mark in the SEC. Saban has now won 10 games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in his career. He captured his 100th career win and coached his 150th game as a collegiate head coach during the 2008 campaign. In 2003, Saban led LSU to a 13-1 record and the BCS National Championship. Overall, Saban has coached three conference championship teams (1990 Mid-American, 2001 SEC and 2003 SEC) and nine of his 12 teams have played in post-season bowl games with Alabama already bowl eligible this season. Saban is one of two (Bob Stoops) current Football Bowl Subdivision coaches to coach for at least 10 years and not suffer a losing season.

RANKINGS: The Crimson Tide is ranked No. 2 in the Associated Press poll, No. 2 in the BCS standings, No. 3 in the Harris Poll and No. 3 in the USA Today Coaches' poll this week following a 45-0 win over Tennessee-Chattanooga. Alabama has been ranked as high as No. 1 in the AP poll and No. 2 in the coaches' poll this season. UA garnered 13 first-place votes in the AP poll and eight in the coaches' poll this week. Alabama was ranked fifth in both the AP and USA Today Coaches' preseason polls. It was the highest preseason ranking for the Tide since the 2000 season when Alabama opened at No. 3.

AUBURN SERIES: The Alabama Crimson Tide and Auburn Tigers meet in the 74th Iron Bowl on Friday at Jordan-Hare Stadium in Auburn. Alabama holds a 39-33-1 lead in a series that dates back to February 22, 1893 (1892 season), when the two teams met at Birmingham's Lakeview Park with the Tigers claiming 32-22 victory. The Crimson Tide captured a 36-0 win at Bryant-Denny Stadium last season. Alabama will be making its 10th visit to Auburn with the Tigers owning a 7-2 edge in the series on the plains. UA's last win at Auburn was a 31-7 triumph in 2001.

NEXT GAME: The Crimson Tide makes its second straight trip to the SEC Championship Game in Atlanta to face the top-ranked Florida Gators. The Georgia Dome, the site of the SEC title game since 1994, is a familiar venue for the Crimson Tide, who will be playing their fourth game in the building over the past two years. The game is slated to kickoff at 3 p.m. (CST) and will be broadcast by CBS. It will be the seventh meeting for Alabama and Florida in the SEC Championship Game with the Gators owning a 4-2 in the previous six games. Florida is the only opponent Alabama has ever faced in the SEC title game.

ON THE INTERNET

RollTide.com - Alabama's official athletics web site serves as a resource for in-depth information on current and historical Crimson Tide student-athletes, coaches and teams. The football page includes links to rosters, coaching staff, notes packages, practice reports and schedules as well as Tide TV and all of Alabama's rich football history and tradition.

SECsportsmedia.com - Media covering the Southeastern Conference has its own web site to get the latest information on the league. Through the services of Sports Systems, Inc., the site has the latest updated standings, results, schedules, statistics, notes and PDF versions of all SEC releases and media guides. On the site, the SEC has a digital image platform that provides access to the SEC's latest photographs, images, logos and links to all of the SEC school media web sites and home pages.

ALABAMA PLAYERS: Interview requests for Alabama players should be made through Josh Maxson (Assistant Director of Media Relations). Josh can be reached at (205) 348-7496 or by e-mail at jmaxson@ia.ua.edu. Player interviews are usually conducted at Monday's press conference beginning at 12:30 p.m. and following practice on Tuesday and Wednesday. All player requests for Monday's press conference need to be made by 5 p.m. on the Sunday before, so proper notice can be given to the players. Players are off limits for interviews beginning on Thursday.

GAME CREDENTIALS: Media should apply for credentials at www.rolltide.com/media. All credentials are held at media will call, which is located in the northwest corner of Bryant-Denny Stadium at Ticket Window 8 which is located next to Gate 3. The media will call window opens three hours prior to kickoff. Any questions can be directed to Roots Woodruff at rwoodruff@ia.ua.edu.

ALABAMA DEGREES: Alabama's success on the field over the past two-and-a-half seasons under the direction of head coach Nick Saban has coincided with success in the classroom. An impressive total of 13 Crimson Tide players are playing this season with degrees already in hand, including Eryk Anders (Health Studies), Drew Davis (marketing), P.J. Fitzgerald (management), Mike Johnson (consumer affairs), Tyrone King (Health Studies), Greg McElroy (business marketing), Cory Reamer (finance), Chris Rogers (consumer affairs), Brian Selman (business marketing), Ali Sharrief (human environmental science), Travis Sikes (consumer affairs), Heath Thomas and Lorenzo Washington (human environmental science). McElroy finished his undergraduate degree in just three years with a 3.86 grade point average while graduating magna cum laude. Additionally, another 10 players are on track to graduate in December of 2009. In 2008, Alabama had six players with degrees already in hand.

TIDE LEADS NATION IN GRADUATES: Alabama's 13 graduates on the 2009 roster are the most of any school in the Bowl Championship Subdivision. The Crimson Tide is five graduates ahead of any other SEC school with Auburn checking in fifth with eight graduates. Boston College and Virginia Tech (the Tide's season-opening opponent) are tied for second with 10 graduates while Penn State is fourth with nine (see sidebar for complete list).

BEATING THE BEST: Alabama is 7-2 against the Associated Press Top 25 over the 2008 and 2009 seasons. The Crimson Tide's 24-15 win over No. 9 LSU last week was the Tide's fourth win over a top-10 team dating back to the start of the 2008 season. Alabama is 4-0 against the AP Top 25 in the 2009 season.

Alabama vs. Top 25 Opponents (since the start of the 2008 season)

Date	Team	Rank	Result
Aug. 30, 2008	vs. Clemson	9	W, 34-10
Sept. 27, 2008	at Georgia	3	W, 41-30
Nov. 8, 2008	at LSU	15	W, 27-21 (OT)
Dec. 6, 2008	vs. Florida	2	L, 31-20
Jan. 2, 2009	vs. Utah	7	L, 31-17
Sept. 5, 2009	vs. Virginia Tech	7	W, 34-24
Oct. 10, 2009	at Mississippi	20	W, 22-3
Oct. 17, 2009	South Carolina	22	W, 20-6
Nov. 6, 2009	LSU	9	W, 24-15

INITIAL BCS RANKINGS RELEASED: Alabama is ranked second in this week's Bowl Championship Series standings released on Sunday, November 22. The Crimson Tide (.9614) trails No. 1 Florida (.9664) by a margin of just .0050 with Texas in third at .9263. The Tide is ranked No. 3 in the Harris Interactive poll and the USA Today Coaches poll but is a consensus No. 1 in the average of all six computer rankings, while third-place Texas is fourth in the computers. TCU is fourth in the BCS with an average of 0.8699 with Cincinnati fifth (.8591).

Team	BCS Average	Harris Average	Coaches Average	Computer Average
1. Florida	.9664	.9800 (1)	.9892 (1)	.930 (2)
2. Alabama	.9614	.9432 (3)	.9410 (3)	1.000 (1)
3. Texas	.9263	.9512 (2)	.9478 (2)	.880 (4)
4. TCU	.8699	.8726 (4)	.8671 (4)	.870 (5)
5. Cincinnati	.8591	.8274 (5)	.8298 (5)	.920 (3)

SABAN AMONG THE BEST: Head coach Nick Saban's arrival in Tuscaloosa has seen his Crimson Tide vault up the national rankings. That success in such a short period of time has quickly impacted the Tide's record book. Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history as Alabama went from seven wins in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008. He is one of two coaches (Bob Stoops, Oklahoma) in the Football Bowl Subdivision football to have coached 10 years and never suffered through a losing season. Saban achieved another first in 2009 with back-to-back 10-win seasons. He also ranks fourth in winning percentage (70.3 percent) among active coaches who have coached at least 10 years of Division I-A football.

AMONG THE BEST

TOP WINNING PERCENTAGE BY ACTIVE COACHES

Coach	Team	Record	Pct.
Bob Stoops	Oklahoma	115-29	.799
Joe Paterno	Penn State	392-129-3	.7509
Bobby Bowden	Florida State	388-128-4	.7500
Steve Spurrier	South Carolina	176-67-2	.722
Nick Saban	Alabama	121-50-1	.706
Dennis Erickson	Arizona State	169-82-1	.673

CRIMSON TIDE DEFENSIVE NOTES

BAMA DEFENSE GETTING STRONGER: Alabama's defense only seems to be strengthening down the stretch of the 2009 season, ranking in the top five in every major defensive category. The Crimson Tide leads the nation in total defense (225.64 yards per game) and pass efficiency defense (82.52), while ranking second in rushing defense (70.36 ypg) and scoring defense (9.91 points per game). After holding Chattanooga to 36 yards on 7-of-27 passing, Alabama moved up to fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing 154.64 ypg. The UA defense has surrendered only six touchdowns in seven Southeastern Conference games this season and has held five SEC teams to single-digit scoring. The Crimson Tide has won six of its seven SEC games by two or more scores. Over the past six games those numbers get even better, with Alabama allowing only three touchdowns and 37 total points in those games (6.17 ppg).

Alabama's SEC Defense

Team	TD (s)	Points	Rushing	Passing	Total Offense
Arkansas	1	7	63	191	254
at Kentucky	2	20	133	168	301
at Mississippi	0	3	57	140	197
South Carolina	0	6	64	214	278
Tennessee	1	10	74	265	339
LSU	2	15	95	158	253
at Mississippi State	0	3	114	99	213

DOMINANT 'D': Alabama returned eight starters from a 2008 defense that finished third nationally in total defense, allowing 263.5 yards per game. The 2009 unit has even better numbers, allowing a total of 225.18 yards per game in 11 games to lead the nation. Most recently, Alabama held Chattanooga to 84 total yards, including 48 rushing and 36 passing. The UA defense has not allowed a touchdown in the first quarter in its last seven games dating back to the Florida International game (when Alabama allowed 7 points in the first quarter and 14 points in the first half). Alabama has not allowed a point in the opening quarter of its last five games. The Tide opened the season by holding Virginia Tech to 155 total yards (64 rushing, 91 passing). UA held FIU to 214 total yards, including only one yard rushing, while North Texas could manage only 187 yards of offense and 61 yards rushing. Arkansas managed 63 on the ground, while the Tide limited Mississippi to 197 yards and 57 rushing, including 19 yards of total offense in the first half. UA then held No. 22 South Carolina to 64 yards rushing and six points. LSU totaled 253 yards, but had only 95 on the ground. Mississippi State could only muster 99 yards through the air and 213 total yards.

McCLAIN HEART AND SOUL OF TIDE DEFENSE: Junior middle linebacker Rolando McClain has proven to be the heart and soul of the Tide's defense and maybe the most complete linebacker in the country. The Butkus Award finalist not only leads the team in tackles with 84, but is virtually an on-the-field coach for Alabama. McClain is responsible for making all of the defensive calls and is especially proficient at checking the Crimson Tide into the correct play. Almost impossible to block, McClain is either making the tackle or forcing the play into the waiting arms of another Tide defender. The remainder of his stat line: 10.5 tackles for loss (-46 yards), 3.0 sacks (-26 yards), two interceptions (21 return yards), two pass breakups, 11 quarterback hurries and a forced fumble. McClain's play has garnered him extensive national recognition. He was the FWAA/Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week after his performance against Kentucky. McClain has also been named a midseason All-American by Sporting News and selected as a semifinalist for the Lombardi Award as well as the Chuck Bednarik Award, which goes to the best defensive player in the nation.

AIR DEFENSE: Alabama's defense has smothered almost every aspect of opposing offenses in 2009 and, while a lot of the attention goes to the Tide's suffocating rushing defense, Alabama has also limited some dangerous passing attacks. The Tide boasts the nation's top-ranked pass efficiency defense, surrendering an 82.52 opponent passer rating. The Tide is also fifth in pass defense, allowing 154.64 ypg while ranking seventh with 18 interceptions. Chattanooga's 36 yards passing was the fewest since UA held Southern Mississippi to 23 yards through the air in 2004. Over the last three games, UA has limited LSU, Mississippi State and Chattanooga to a total of 293 passing yards (97.7 ypg). A game-by-game look at opponents' passing numbers in 2009:

ALABAMA IN THE AP

Alabama has been ranked in 641 of the 1,002 Associated Press college football polls since 1936, according to the AP Poll Archive. The Crimson Tide owns a 383-128-10 all-time record in games when ranked in the Associated Press college football poll, including an 23-5 mark under head coach Nick Saban. The Crimson Tide is also ranked in the AP poll for the 26th consecutive game (including all 14 last season), its longest streak since the mid 1990s when UA was ranked for 71 consecutive weeks under Coach Gene Stallings.

UA IN THE COACHES' POLL

The Crimson Tide has enjoyed much success in the coaches rankings over the last half century. The United Press International debuted the coaches poll in 1950 and ran the poll through the 1990 season. The USA Today took over the poll in 1991 and has run the poll for the last 19 seasons. Alabama was ranked No. 5 in the 2009 preseason coaches' poll after not being ranked in last year's preseason poll. Alabama entered the rankings after beating Clemson and was ranked in the coaches poll for the remainder of the season, reaching No. 1 in the polls for five weeks in November. The Tide has five UPI (1961, 1964, 1973 and 1979) and USA Today (1992) coaches poll national titles.

GROUND DEFENSE: The Crimson Tide has not allowed a 100-yard rusher in an astonishing 31 games, dating back to Oct. 13, 2007, when Mississippi's BenJarvus Green-Ellis went for 131 yards. That is the longest streak in the nation, nine games more than second-place Ohio State (21 games). Alabama is one of six teams not to allow a 100-yard rusher in 2009 and is the only team not to surrender a 100-yard rusher in 2008 or 2009. As a team, the Crimson Tide has held 20 teams under 100 yards rushing over the past 24 games with only LSU and Florida in 2008 and Kentucky and Mississippi State in 2009 able to crack the 100-yard barrier as a team.

Teams That Have Not Allowed a 100-Yard Rusher in 2009

STIFLING DEFENSE PUTTING UP IMPRESSIVE NUMBERS: Alabama's defense over the past 25 games - or two seasons - has held opponents under 200 yards of total offense in 10 games, including a 155-yard effort by Virginia Tech, a 187-yard showing by North Texas, a 197-yard game by Mississippi and a 84-yard outing vs. Chattanooga in 2009. The sub-200-yard games in that span: Clemson (188); Western Kentucky (158); Tennessee (173); Arkansas State (158); Mississippi State (167); Auburn (170); Virginia Tech (155); North Texas (187); Mississippi (197).

DEFENSE TOUGH ON THIRD DOWN: The Crimson Tide defense has been strong on third down in 2009, ranking sixth nationally and allowing a 28.57 conversion rate (44 for 154). Alabama's performance at Mississippi on October 10 was something special. UA did not allow the Rebels a single third-down conversion as UM went 0 for 9. UA held Virginia Tech to just two conversions on 12 third down attempts (16.7 percent). Florida International was just 7 for 17 (41.1%) on third down while North Texas could only muster a success rate of 28.5 percent (4 for 14). The Tide opened SEC play by limiting Arkansas to 2 for 14 on third down (14.3 percent) and then held Kentucky to 4 of 13 (30.8 percent). No. 9 LSU converted just 5 of 14 (35.7 percent) in the Tide's 24-15 win and Mississippi State managed just a mere 15.4 percent conversion rate (2 for 13). Chattanooga was 3 for 13 on third down (23.08) in a 45-0 loss. That continues a trend for the Crimson Tide after finishing third nationally in third down conversion defense in 2008, holding opponents to a 28.14 percent (56 of 199) conversion rate.

FORCING TURNOVERS: Alabama has produced 19 turnovers in the last seven games, forcing five turnovers at Mississippi, four at Kentucky, two against South Carolina, one vs. Tennessee, one vs. LSU, three at Mississippi State and three against Chattanooga. The Tide has picked off 16 passes in those seven games and recovered three fumbles. The Crimson Tide ranks fifth nationally in turnover margin at plus-1.18 per game. Alabama has forced 72 turnovers in 38 games under head coach Nick Saban, an average of 1.89 per game, forcing 23 turnovers in 11 games this season, while the UA offense has only turned the ball over 10 times (4 interception, 6 fumbles) in 2009. Alabama forced 24 turnovers in 2007 for a plus-4 turnover ratio and then recorded 25 turnovers and ended the season with a plus-6 turnover margin in 2008. Alabama has recorded at least one turnover in 33 of 38 games under Saban. UA is 27-6 under Saban when gaining at least one turnover. Alabama is 3-2 in games without a turnover over the last three seasons.

PASS RUSH IMPORTANT FOR BAMA DEFENSE: The Alabama defense will be looking to get pressure on Auburn quarterback Chris Todd in an effort to slow down the Tigers' passing attack, which ranks 54th nationally. The Crimson Tide has 28 sacks on the season, wo more sacks than the Tide recorded in 14 games in 2008. UA ranks 27th nationally while ranking third in the SEC in sacks with 2.55 per game. The Tigers offensive line has surrendered an average of just 1.36 sacks per game to rank 31st nationally. Defensive end Marcell Dareus leads Alabama with 0.59 sacks per game (6.5 yards in losses) while Javier Arenas and Eryk Anders are second on the team with 4.0 and Rolando McClain has three sacks. UA ranks 24th nationally in tackles for loss, averaging 6.91 per game. That mark also ranks third in the SEC and accounts for 365 lost yards by UA opponents. Arenas leads the Tide with 11.0 tackles for loss (-75 yards) while McClain is second with 10.5 (-46 yards), Dareus and Anders are third with 8.5.

MARK BARRON MAKING PRESENCE KNOWN: Alabama sophomore safety Mark Barron might not be the first safety to come across the minds of the national media, but the Mobile, Ala., native is making a strong bid for first-team All-SEC recognition and may be worthy of consideration for much more. Barron is tied for sixth nationally while leading the SEC with six interceptions. He also has 61 tackles to rank second on the Alabama defense, which ranks in the top two nationally of almost every defensive category. Barron leads the SEC lead in passes defended with 16 (10 passes broken up, 6 interceptions) and ranks second nationally with 1.45 passes defended per game.

DAREUS MAKES A NAME FOR HIMSELF: Sophomore defensive lineman Marcell Dareus has been dominant in 2009. He has 28 tackles on the season with 8.5 tackles for loss (-48) and 6.5 sacks (-44) to rank fourth in the Southeastern Conference and tied for 53rd nationally. Dareus had a breakout game in the season opener against Virginia Tech with 1.5 sacks as he harassed Tech signal-caller Tyrod Taylor into 9-of-20 passing for just 91 yards. He followed that up with a four-tackle outing against Florida International in which he posted two sacks for 17 yards in losses. Dareus had two solo stops vs. Arkansas with a tackle for loss (-1). He then recorded a sack, four tackles and a pass breakup in a hard-fought win over Tennessee before notching two more sacks in a win over No. 9 LSU.

DEADERICK UNDAUNTED: Senior defensive tackle Brandon Deaderick completed a miraculous return to the playing field with an appearance in the Crimson Tide's win over Virginia Tech, just five days after being shot by an unknown assailant on the night of Monday, August 31, in Tuscaloosa. Deaderick, who suffered non-life threatening injuries to his left forearm and hip in the incident, was cleared for action by team doctors. He saw his first action on special teams with 6:35 left to play in the first quarter on Virginia Tech's point-after conversion following a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown that tied the game at 6-6. Deaderick saw action on defense with 3:00 left in the first quarter. He finished with one solo tackle vs. the Hokies. He has played in all 10 games this season with six starts. He has accounted for 18 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

CRIMSON TIDE OFFENSIVE NOTES

AT HIS BEST, AGAINST THE BEST: Mark Ingram has been at his best against the best in 2009. The sophomore has rolled up 1,624 all-purpose yards and 15 touchdowns while averaging 127.18 yards per game on the ground with 12 rushing touchdowns in 11 games. But those numbers climb even higher when the Crimson Tide's opponent is ranked in the top 25. In UA's four games with top-25 opponents - including two in the top 10 - Ingram has accounted for 712 yards on the ground (178.0 ypg) with three touchdowns. He has also caught 13 passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to account for 831 all-purpose yards (203.25 ypg) in those four games.

Ingram broke free for 150 rushing yards and a touchdown while catching three passes for 35 yards and a score in the season-opener against Virginia Tech. He scampered for 172 yards on the ground, including a 36-yard touchdown run on fourth down at Mississippi. Ingram then exploded for a Bryant-Denny Stadium record 246 yards and a game-clinching touchdown vs. South Carolina and then pounded out 144 yards with five receptions for 30 yards vs. No. 9 LSU.

The Tide's games against ranked opponents are also when he has best displayed his hard-to-tackle running style that has led to 484 total yards after contact (121.0 ypg), including 115 yards vs. Virginia Tech, 95 yards after contact at Mississippi, 167 yards against South Carolina and 107 after contact against No. 9 LSU.

INGRAM OFF TO THE RACES: Sophomore Mark Ingram is producing a 2009 season that should put him at or near the top of the list for the Doak Walker Award, which goes to the nation's top running back and in the hunt for the Heisman Trophy. He has rushed for 1,399 yards and 12 touchdowns in 11 games this season for 127.18 yards per game average to rank fifth nationally and first in the SEC in rushing. Ingram has also added 25 receptions for 225 yards and three scores. Below is a look at Ingram's season on a game-by-game case.

INGRAM EXPLOSIVE: Mark Ingram has burst onto the scene for the Crimson Tide as a sophomore in 2009. He ranks among the national leaders in runs of 10 yards or more (43), 15 yards or more (28) and 20 yards or more (17). With his nine receptions of 10 or more yards, he has a total of 52 plays of 10 or more yards this season, which accounts for 22.6 percent of his 230 touches (205 rushes, 25 receptions). He ripped off an impressive eight runs and one reception of 10 or more yards against South Carolina, including five runs and one reception of 20 or more yards. He also had six runs and one reception of 10 yards or more vs. LSU's tough defense.

ALMOST 7 YARDS A CLIP: Ingram's big runs in 2009 have also shown in his 6.82 yards per carry, which leads the Southeastern Conference and ranks fourth nationally among rushers with at least 165 carries (15 rushes per game). Fresno State's Ryan Matthews is first with 7.00 yards per carry on 213 attempts.

AND TOUGH: Mark Ingram has also proven difficult to bring down on first contact. He has gained an astonishing 885 yards after contact this season on 230 touches (205 rushes, 25 receptions). He has gained 54.5 percent of his total yards after contact this season (885 of 1,624). Ingram reeled off a season-best 167 total yards after contact against South Carolina on 24 rushes and two receptions. He also broke the 100-yard barrier on yards after contact vs. Virginia Tech (115) and LSU (107) and got close at Mississippi (95) yards after contact. Below is a breakdown of Ingram's yards after contact (both rushing and receiving) this year.

INGRAM NOW 2ND ON ALABAMA'S SINGLE-SEASON RUSHING LIST: Mark Ingram rushed for 102 yards on only 11 carries vs. Chattanooga last week, giving him 1,399 rushing yards this season. With his totals, Ingram has moved into second place on the Alabama single-season rushing list, passing Sherman Williams (1,341 in 1994), Shaud Williams (1,367 in 2003), Glen Coffee (1,383 in 2008) and Shaun Alexander (1,383 in 1999). He is just 73 yards from becoming the Capstone's leader in single-season rushing yards.

Alabama's 1,000-Yard Rushing Seasons

Yards	Player (Attempts)	Year
1,471	Bobby Humphrey (236 att.)	1986
1,399	Mark Ingram (205 att.)	2009
1,383	Shaun Alexander (302 att.)	1999
1,383	Glen Coffee (233 att.)	2008
1,367	Shaud Williams (280 att.)	2003

INGRAM ON PACE: Alabama sophomore running back Mark Ingram has already turned in a big season for the Crimson Tide. His 127.18 yards per game currently ranks fifth in the country and he is on pace to rush for 1,780 yards in a 14-game season (SEC Championship and bowl game). That number would shatter the school single-season mark of 1,471 by Bobby Humphrey in 1986 and rank as the fourth-most rushing yards in a single season in SEC history. It would only trail only Georgia's Herschel Walker (1,891), Arkansas' Darren McFadden (1,830) and Auburn's Bo Jackson (1,786). He would also do it in less carries than any running back in the top 10.

BALL SECURITY: Mark Ingram has also developed an impressive reputation during his 25-game Alabama career as an expert at holding onto the football. The sophomore has lost only one fumble in 348 career rushing attempts and 32 career receptions for a total of 380 career touches. He has only put the ball on the ground twice (at LSU in 2008 and vs. Tennessee in 2009), the first of which was recovered by the Tide and the second was a lost fumble vs. Tennessee this season. Ingram went 332 carries into his career before losing his first fumble. He has 2,127 rushing yards in those 25 games with 24 rushing touchdowns while also catching 32 passes for 279 yards and three scores.

INGRAM RACKING UP RUSHING/RECEIVING YARDS: Alabama sophomore tailback Mark Ingram is not only moving up on the Tide's single-season rushing chart (currently ranks second with 1,399 yards), but he is also among the UA greats in the all-purpose yardage category. Ingram enters today's game with 1,624 all-purpose yards (only rushing and receiving in his case), which ranks sixth on the Tide's single-season list. He is 172 yards out of third place and trails the Tide's single-season record-holder Bobby Humphrey (2,016 yards in 1986) by 392 yards with three games to play. Ingram is averaging 147.6 all-purpose yards per game this season, which is the fifth-highest average in school history.

TOP RUSHING EFFORT IN BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM: Mark Ingram constructed a career-best rushing performance with 246 yards on 24 attempts against South Carolina on Oct. 17 – the third-highest single-game rushing total in Alabama history and the most in the history of Bryant-Denny Stadium. Ingram's signature drive of the season also came against the Gamecocks, as he carried the ball on all six plays of the Tide final touchdown drive that sealed the game. Five of the plays came out of the 'Wildcat' formation with the runs covering 24, 4, 5, 9, 22 and 4 yards (TD). The yardage exceeded Ingram's 172-yard outing at Mississippi, his previous career high.

INGRAM RECEIVES HEISMAN ATTENTION: Mark Ingram's all-around effort in 2009 has people talking about the sophomore and the Heisman Trophy. Ingram has topped the last four Heisman-Pundit.com polls and ESPN's Heisman Watch. HeismanPundit.com features 13 Heisman voters from across the country voting for their top five each week. The Nov. 17 poll had the Tide's Ingram in front of Texas' Colt McCoy by 24 points (59 to 35) with Ingram receiving 10 first-place votes and McCoy getting one. ESPN's Heisman Watch (Nov. 17), which polls 15 experts from across the nation, has Ingram with 72 total points and 12 first-place votes with Stanford's Toby Gerhart second with 42 points and one first-place vote.

INGRAM SCORES ON CAREER-LONG RUN: Sophomore running back Mark Ingram's 70-yard touchdown run with 7:24 left in the fourth quarter sealed Alabama's win over Mississippi State. It also stands as the longest run of Ingram's Alabama career (previous long: 54 yards versus South Carolina on October 17, 2009).

MARK INGRAM BREAKDOWN: Below is a detailed breakdown of sophomore running back Mark Ingram's 2009 season as the sophomore continues to trend upward.

Ingram vs. SEC Teams: Ingram has rushed for exactly 1,000 yards (150 attempts) in seven SEC games this season. He is averaging 142.9 yards per game in SEC play with seven rushing touchdowns. He has accounted for 73.2 percent of the team's rushing total in league play (1,000 of 1,366) and has scored seven of the team's eight rushing touchdowns. Ingram has five 100-yard games in SEC play this season against Kentucky, Mississippi, South Carolina, LSU and Mississippi State. He finished with a career-high 246 yards vs. No. 22 South Carolina and then busted loose on a career-long 70-yard touchdown run at Mississippi State on Nov. 14.

Ingram on the Road: In four games away from Bryant-Denny Stadium, vs. Virginia Tech (Atlanta), at Kentucky, Mississippi and Mississippi State, Ingram is averaging 152.8 rushing yards per game this season. He has gained 611 yards in those contests on 95 carries for a 6.42 yards per carry average and six touchdowns.

Ingram in September: Ingram averaged 86.8 rushing yards in four games in September in limited action. He missed the start and most of the second half of the Tide's win over Florida International with the flu. He then missed almost all of the second half and only received eight carries in a 53-7 blowout win over North Texas. Ingram also missed most of the fourth quarter against Arkansas after the Tide built a 35-7 lead.

Ingram in October: Ingram had a breakout month in October, averaging 164.2 rushing yards per game against four SEC opponents. He had 92 rushing attempts for 657 yards and four touchdowns for 7.1 yards per carry. Ingram tallied three 100-yard rushing games and had 99 yards in win over Tennessee while averaging 175.5 all-purpose yards per game.

Ingram in November: In three games this month, Ingram has 52 rushing attempts for 395 yards and four touchdowns in wins over LSU, Mississippi State and Chattanooga. He is averaging 7.6 yards per carry and 131.6 yards per game in those three games. He ran for 144 yards in the Tide's SEC Western Division-clinching win over No. 9 LSU on Nov. 7 and added 149 rushing yards - with a 70-yard run - and two touchdowns at Mississippi State on Nov. 14. Ingram left the game with 9:43 remaining in the second quarter vs. Chattanooga with 102 yards and two touchdowns on just 11 rushes.

A BALANCED ATTACK: Alabama made its name a season ago with a punishing ground attack that wore down defenses and took shots down the field. In 2009, the Tide has brought more balance to the table. UA still has an outstanding ground game and an aerial attack to match with quarterback Greg McElroy. The Tide has shown good balance in their offensive numbers, averaging 225.64 rushing yards (10th nationally) and 192.36 yards passing (89th nationally) per game, which gives UA the No. 30 total offense in the nation (418.00 ypg). On the ground, Alabama is rushing the ball an average of 42.0 times per game for 5.37 yards per rush. The passing game is averaging 25.8 pass attempts per contest for an average of 7.45 yards per attempt. Those numbers are leading to points on the scoreboard. UA averaged 30.1 points per game last season and is averaging 32.2 points per game in 2009 to rank 23rd nationally.

McELROY ON THE MARK: Greg McElroy has been impressive in his first 11 games as the Crimson Tide's starting quarterback, completing 60.0 percent (159 of 265) of his passes for 1,993 yards and 14 touchdowns with only four interceptions. The junior boasts a 137.59 passing efficiency rating, which ranks 37th nationally and fifth in the SEC. He has won his last 27 starts at quarterback, going 16-0 as a high school senior in 2005 and 11-0 for the Tide in 2009. In his collegiate starting debut against Virginia Tech, the Southlake, Texas, native threw for 230 yards on 15-of-30 passing with one touchdown and one interception in leading the Crimson Tide to a win over the No. 7 team in the country. He also set a new Alabama record for consecutive completions against FIU by connecting on 14 straight passes. Then against North Texas, he tied the school mark for highest completion percentage with a minimum of 10 completions, going 13 for 15 (86.7 percent).

RICHARDSON HAS IMPRESSIVE ROOKIE CAMPAIGN: True freshman running back Trent Richardson has enjoyed an impressive rookie season. The Pensacola, Fla., native has rushed for 511 yards and five touchdowns on just 100 attempts. He is averaging 5.11 yards per carry and 46.5 yards per game. He rushed for 118 yards and two touchdowns on 15 carries against FIU in just his second career game. He followed that up with 87 yards on 11 carries (7.9 ypc) against North Texas and 65 yards and a score vs. Arkansas. Richardson scored on runs of nine and 35 yards in the second half vs. FIU, plunged in from one-yard out against North Texas and then broke five tackles en route to a 52-yard touchdown vs. Arkansas. He added

MULTIPLE OPTIONS CREATE DIVERSE OFFENSIVE ATTACK: One of the keys for the Tide's high-powered offense in 2009 has been its ability to find playmakers all over the field. UA quarterbacks, led by starter Greg McElroy, have completed 60.9 percent of their passes to an impressive 17 different receivers in the first 10 games of the 2009 season. That includes the SEC opener against Arkansas where McElroy spread out 17 completions to nine different receiving targets. The UA receiving numbers are headed by preseason All-America wide out Julio Jones, who has 31 receptions for 462 yards, a 14.9 yards per catch average and four touchdowns. Running back Mark Ingram is tied with Marquis Maze with 25 catches. Ingram has three receiving touchdowns and 225 yards while Maze has a team-best 423 yards and two touchdowns. Next is tight end Colin Peek is next with 20 grabs for 221 yards and one touchdown. Junior Darius Hanks follows (16 catches, 257 yards & 3 TDs) In all, the Tide has 89 receptions from its wide receivers, 48 from backs, 34 from tight ends and one from safety Mark Barron on a fake punt.

DIVERSE SCORING: The Alabama offense has been able to score in a hurry while also showing the ability to grind out the long, time-consuming scoring drive. The Crimson Tide has scored 21 touchdowns in three minutes or less, including 12 that found the end zone in three or less plays. On the flip side, Alabama has grinded out 12 scoring drives (nine touchdowns & three field goals) that have included 10 or more plays and 5:00 of possession time. The Tide has logged five touchdowns that have consisted of at least 13 plays. Alabama has also pounded out nine drives of 80 yards or more, including three drives of 95 yards or more (99, 97 & 95).

TIME OF POSSESSION: An Alabama trademark over the past two seasons has been its ability to control the line of scrimmage offensively and, consequently, control the tempo of the game. This has played out with an impressive advantage in time of possession. A year ago the Crimson Tide finished 11th nationally with an average time of possession of 32:08. In 2009, the Crimson Tide is once again a leader in that category, ranking tied for sixth nationally at 32:56. The Tide held the ball for 37:02 in the opener against Virginia Tech and then again against Chattanooga. UA had a season-best 38:19 of possession at Mississippi. UA also won possession time against Florida International (31:38), North Texas (30:43), Arkansas (33:36), Kentucky (33:30), LSU (32:52) and Mississippi State (31:36). The Tide has won the time of possession battle in 18 of the last 25 games overall and 9-of-11 contests in 2009.

BAMA SCORES ON BIG PLAYS: On the year, the Alabama offense has 49 plays of 20 yards or more with 20 of those plays going for touchdowns. The Tide also has 20 plays of 35 yards or more with 13 of those going to scores.

ALABAMA'S 53 POINTS: The Crimson Tide's 53 points in its win over North Texas were the most during head coach Nick Saban's tenure at the Capstone. The previous high of 52 came on Sept. 1, 2007, against Western Carolina in his first game at Alabama. Additionally, the 53 points are the most scored by Alabama since beating UTEP, 56-7, on Oct. 6, 2001, at Legion Field in Birmingham. The 53 points are the most at Bryant-Denny Stadium since a 62-0 win over Tulane on Oct. 12, 1991.

100-YARD RUSHERS AND RECEIVERS: Alabama has had eight 100-yard rushers and two 100-yard receiver in its 11 games this season. Sophomore running back Mark Ingram ran for 150 yards in the Tide's 34-24 win over Virginia Tech in the season opener on Sept. 5. One week later, freshman Trent Richardson led the Tide with 118 rushing yards and senior WR Mike McCoy recorded his first career 100-yard receiving game in a win over FIU (5-100-1). Ingram has also recorded at least 100 yards in five of his last six games, only missing the 100-yard mark vs. Tennessee with 99 yards. He had 140 yards at Kentucky, 172 yards at Mississippi and then a career-best and Bryant-Denny Stadium record 246 yards against South Carolina. Ingram then went for 144 against No. 9 LSU, 149 and two scores at Mississippi State and 102 yards and two TDs against Chattanooga on just 11 carries. Under Coach Saban, Alabama has had 18 100-yard rushing games and the Tide has gone 17-1 in those 18 games. Four different players have rushed for 100 yards during the last three seasons. Under Coach Saban, Alabama has had eight 100-yard receiving performances and the Tide has gone 7-1 in those games. The LSU game on Nov. 7 marked the fourth time under Coach Saban that Alabama had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game.

30-PLUS: For the first time since 1979, and just the third time in school history, Alabama opened the season with five straight games of 30 points or more. The Tide also accomplished the feat in 1920. It was just the seventh time in school history Alabama had five consecutive games of 30 points or more with the most recent being the season-opening streak in 1979. The longest such streak is seven games, which came from Sept. 18 - Oct. 30 in 1971. The 1971 team also set the school record for most 30-point games with nine. Alabama had seven (tied for third) in 2008 and now has seven this season. In 2009, the Tide opened with 34 points against Virginia Tech, scored 40 vs. FIU and the hung 53 against North Texas - the most points for a UA team since 2001. The Crimson Tide then put up 35 points in the SEC opener against Arkansas and followed that with 38 points on the road at Kentucky. Alabama then posted a 31-3 win at Mississippi State on Nov. 14

CRIMSON TIDE SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

ARENAS NEARING SEC & NCAA PUNT RETURN YARDAGE RECORD: Senior cornerback and return specialist Javier Arenas is quickly sneaking up on the all-time great punt returners in college football history. He has already broken all of the Crimson Tide punt return records and the SEC punt returns for touchdowns (7) record, and now has his sights set on other SEC and NCAA records as well. He is the NCAA active leader in career punt returns, yards, touchdowns, returns per game and yards per game. Arenas, who has 1,658 career punt return yards on 119 returns, is just 39 punt return yards away from breaking Lee Nalley's long-standing SEC record of 1,695 (102 returns for a 14.4 ypr average). Arenas set the SEC punt returns for touchdowns record (7) with a 66-yard return against Chattanooga. Nalley set that record from 1947-49 and it stood for 54 years as the NCAA record until Texas Tech's Wes Welker broke it in 2003. Welker finished his Tech career with 1,761 punt return yards and Arenas needs 104 yards to break his record and become the NCAA's all-time leader in punt return yards.

ARENAS' CAREER PUNT RETURNS: BY THE NUMBERS

Year	No.	Yards	Avg.	TD	LP
2006	31	286	9.2	2	86
2007	21	323	15.4	1	69
2008	41	650	15.9	3	87
2009	26	399	15.3	1	66
TOTAL	119	1,658	13.93	7	87

ARENAS' PUNT RETURN CAREER HIGHS

Punt Returns:	6 vs. Arkansas, 2007
Yards:	153 vs. Mississippi State, 2008
Touchdowns:	1 (7 Times) Last vs. Chattanooga, 2009
Long Play:	87 vs. Tulane, 2008

TIFFIN'S PRODUCTION AT ALL-TIME HIGH: Alabama senior place-kicker Leigh Tiffin is second nationally in field goals per game at 2.27. He has connected on 25-of-28 field goals this season (89.3 percent). His 25 field goals tie his own school record set in 2007 and currently rank as the fifth most by any SEC kicker in a single season. Tiffin also leads the SEC and ranks eighth nationally in scoring at 9.91 points per game. He has scored 109 points this season, which is second-highest single-season total at UA, trailing his 2007 season (111 points). The 109 points also ranks tied for ninth in the SEC record books. Tiffin has connected on 10 consecutive field goals and 19 of his last 20. He has made an impressive 16 field goals (out of 17) over the last six games.

Kicking Points in a Season

Points	Player (FGs, PATs)	Year
111	Leigh Tiffin (25 FGs, 36 PATs)	2007
109	Leigh Tiffin (25 FGs, 34 PATs)	2009
106	Leigh Tiffin (20 FGs, 46 PATs)	2008
100	Philip Doyle (22 FGs, 34 PATs)	1989
97	Philip Doyle (24 FGs, 25 PATs)	1990
97	Michael Proctor (22 FGs, 31 PATs)	1993

TIFFIN BECOMES UA'S CAREER SCORING LEADER: Leigh Tiffin became Alabama's career scoring leader on Nov. 7 with 10 points vs. LSU, passing Philip Doyle (345). He now has 362 career points to rank fifth in SEC history. He is one point behind LSU's Cold David for fourth place, six points behind Florida's Jeff Chandler for third place and nine points back of Tennessee's Jeff Hall for second place.

TIFFIN TIED ON UA'S CAREER FIELD GOALS LIST: Senior place-kicker Leigh Tiffin has tied the Alabama career field goals made record with 78. He converted his only field goal chance - from 41 yards out - against Chattanooga for the 78 of his career, which ties Philip Doyle (78 from 1987-90). Tiffin connected on multiple field goals in four straight games prior to the Mississippi State game. He has made 16 of 17 field goals during the last six games and 10 straight. He surpassed his father, Van Tiffin (59 from 1983-86) against North Texas and then moved past Michael Proctor vs. Mississippi. He is also third on the SEC's career field goals made list, just nine behind Georgia's Billy Bennett (87), who is also the NCAA career leader.

TIFFIN GARNERS NATIONAL ATTENTION: Senior place-kicker Leigh Tiffin keeps making big field goals and the Crimson Tide keeps winning. He ranks second nationally in field goals per game at 2.27 and total field goals with 25. Tiffin also ranks eighth nationally and first in the SEC in scoring with 9.91 points per game. His 109 total points is the second highest in a single season at Alabama, just two points behind his record set in 2007. He has been named a Lou Groza Award "Star of the Week" three times and was a midseason All-American by CBSsports.com. Those numbers should have him in the running for first-team All-America honors and the Lou Groza Award, which goes to the nation's top place-kicker.

ACCOLADES/WATCH LISTS/ HONORS

UA COACHES PLAYERS OF THE WEEK: The Alabama coaching staff recognized seven players of the week following a 45-0 win over Chattanooga. Drew Davis, Julio Jones and Trent Richardson were selected for offensive honors, while Rolando McClain and Javier Arenas were tabbed on the defensive side of the football. Robert Lester and Leigh Tiffin were named the special teams players of the week.

Davis helped clear a path for a season-high 313 yards rushing for the Tide and did not give up a sack or a hurry as the Tide cranked out 422 yards of offense. Jones caught three passes for 65 yards and a touchdown. He first snared a 44-yard reception before following with a 19-yard touchdown grab in the first quarter, his fourth of the season. Trent Richardson ran nine times for 60 yards and a touchdown. He averaged 6.7 yards per carry while only playing in the first half.

McClain claimed his seven defensive player of the week honor from the coaching staff. He accounted for a team-high seven tackles, half of a tackle for loss, one pass breakup and three quarterback hurries. Arenas, who also had a 66-yard punt return for a touchdown to set the SEC career record, also made three tackles, registered half of a tackle for loss, intercepted his second pass of the season and broke up two more passes.

Leigh Tiffin connected on five extra-points and nailed his only field goal, a 42-yarder in the third quarter, while averaging 68.7 yards on kickoffs with two touchbacks. Robert Lester made three special teams tackles on coverage units.

INGRAM/CODY RECEIVE AT&T PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS: In back-to-back weeks (South Carolina and Tennessee), Alabama players won the AT&T All-America Player of the Week Award. The AT&T All-America Player of the Week is the only player of the week award voted on solely by the fans. Ingram rushed for a Bryant-Denny Stadium record 246 yards and a touchdown against South Carolina and Cody followed that with two blocked field goals in the fourth quarter against Tennessee to preserve the win. The second blocked field goal came with four seconds remaining and clinched a 12-10 Crimson Tide win.

MORE SEC HONORS: Javier Arenas is the latest Alabama player to receive SEC Player of the Week honors, earning special teams honors following the Chattanooga game, where he set the SEC record with his seventh career punt return for a touchdown. Mike Johnson was the offensive lineman of the week after the Tide's 252 yards rushing and no sacks allowed at Mississippi State. Arenas was honored following the LSU was as the defensive player of the week, making seven total tackles (four solos), with two for losses (-8 yards) and a quarterback pressure. Seniors Leigh Tiffin and Terrence Cody were honored by the SEC following the Tennessee game. Tiffin was selected as the SEC Special Teams Player of the Week after successfully converting all four field goal attempts and accounting for all 12 points in the win over Tennessee. Tiffin made kicks of 38, 50, 22 and 49 yards. Tiffin has made 11 field goals in the last three games against Mississippi (5-for-5), South Carolina (2-for-3) and Tennessee (4-for-4). Cody was named the SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week after his two blocked field attempts, including one of the game's final play that secured the Crimson Tide's 12-10 victory over the Vols. Cody blocked Daniel Lincoln's 44-yard field goal attempt on the game's final play as the Tide improved to 8-0 this season. Cody also blocked a 43-yard field goal attempt earlier in the fourth quarter, tying the Alabama single-game record for blocked kicks in a game. He was also credited with two tackles in the win.

For the season, Alabama has seen eight players earn 10 SEC Player of the Week honors. Mark Ingram has received offensive player of the week honors twice, following the Virginia Tech and South Carolina games while fellow running back Trent Richardson was recognized as the freshman of the week following the FIU and Arkansas games. Rolando McClain was honored after the Kentucky game when he made 12 tackles, forced a fumble that was returned for a touchdown and intercepted a pass. Junior center William Vlachos was named the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week following the Tide's win at Mississippi.

INGRAM PICKED AS DOAK WALKER SEMIFINALIST: Alabama sophomore running back Mark Ingram has been selected as one of 10 semifinalists for the 2009 Doak Walker Award. It is the second straight season Alabama has had a Doak Walker Award semifinalist (Glen Coffee). In 11 games this season, Ingram has 1,399 yards and 12 touchdowns on the ground. He leads the SEC and ranks fifth nationally with 127.2 rushing yards per game. Ingram has added 25 receptions for 225 yards and three touchdowns, giving him 15 total touchdowns and 1,624 all-purpose yards. He tied Shaun Alexander as the fastest player in school history to reach 1,000 yards, accomplishing the feat in just eight games.

MCCLAIN SELECTED AS BUTKUS FINALIST: Alabama junior linebacker Rolando McClain has been named as one of five finalists for the 2009 Dick Butkus Award, which is presented annually to the best linebacker in college football since 1985. McClain is joined by Sergio Kindle (Texas), Eric Norwood (South Carolina), Brandon Spikes (Florida) and Sean Weatherspoon (Missouri) as this year's finalists. McClain, Spikes and Weatherspoon were all finalists last year. McClain is the heart and soul of the Crimson Tide defense this season, anchoring a unit that leads the SEC and ranks second nationally in rushing defense, allowing 2.4 yards per play and 70.4 yards per game this season. The Decatur, Ala., native leads the team with 84 tackles and has also added 10.5 tackles for loss (-46 yards), three sacks (-26 yards), two interceptions (21 return yards), two pass breakups, 11 quarterback hurries and a forced fumble that led directly to a touchdown. The Tide defense ranks second nationally in scoring defense (9.91 ppg) while leading the nation in total defense (225.2 ypg). Former Alabama All-American Derrick Thomas won the Butkus Award in 1988. This year's winner is to be announced on December 8, 2009.

MCCLAIN NAMED A LOTT IMPACT TROPHY SEMIFINALIST: Crimson Tide junior linebacker Rolando McClain is one of eight semifinalists for the 2009 Lott Impact Trophy the Pacific Club Impact Foundation announced earlier this week. The award, which is named for NFL Hall of Famer Ronnie Lott, is presented to college football's defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. The award is presented to the player who best exhibits the same characteristics Lott embodied during his distinguished career: Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity. The winning school will receive $25,000 for their general scholarship fund. Former Alabama linebacker and current Houston Texans standout DeMeco Ryans won the award in 2006. Alabama ranks in the top three nationally in almost every defensive category. The four finalists will be announced Nov. 24 and the winner will be announced Dec. 13 at the Lott Trophy Banquet in Newport Beach, Calif.

CODY SELECTED AS LOMBARDI FINALIST: Alabama nose guard Terrence Cody is one of four finalists for the 40th Rotary Lombardi Award, which goes to the nation's top interior lineman or linebacker. Cody joins TCU defensive end Jerry Hughes, Oklahoma defensive end Gerald McCoy and Nebraska defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh as this year's finalists. Cody is the seventh Tide player to be named a finalist for the Lombardi Award and the second in a row, after Andre Smith in 2008. Former All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett is the only UA player to win the Lombardi Award, capturing the honor in 1986. Cody has anchored an Alabama defensive front that has held opponents to 70.4 rushing yards per game, a figure that ranks second nationally. He has recorded 22 tackles, including five tackles for loss (-20 yards), while constantly going against double-teams. He has also added two blocked kicks, two quarterback pressures and one pass breakup.

CODY NAMED NAGURSKI FINALIST: Alabama senior nose guard Terrence Cody has been selected as one of five finalists for the 2009 Bronko Nagurski Trophy by the Football Writers Association and the Charlotte (N.C.) Touchdown Club. Cody is joined by Iowa linebacker Pat Angerer, Tennessee strong safety Eric Berry, TCU defensive end Jerry Hughes and Nebraska defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh as the five finalists vying for one of the FWAA's highest honors, its National Defensive Player of the Year award. The winner will be announced on Dec. 7 in Charlotte, N.C.

INGRAM SELECTED AS MAXWELL AWARD SEMIFINALIST: Mark Ingram was named one of 16 semifinalists for the 73rd Maxwell Award, given annually to the best player in college football. Ingram and Florida quarterback Tim Tebow are the only two SEC players to be named semifinalists for the Maxwell Award. Ingram leads the SEC and ranks fifth nationally with 127.2 rushing yards per game this season and 178.0 yards against teams ranked in the top 25.

MCCLAIN AND CODY NAMED SEMIFINALISTS FOR BEDNARIK AWARD: Rolando McClain, a junior linebacker from Decatur, Ala., and Terrence Cody, a senior nose guard from Ft. Myers, Fla., were among the 16 semifinalists for the Chuck Bednarik Award, given to the best defensive player in college football. McClain and Cody were among six SEC players named to the Bednarik Award list.

JAVIER ARENAS TABBED AS SEMIFINALIST FOR THORPE AWARD: Alabama senior cornerback Javier Arenas was named one of 12 semifinalists for the Jim Thorpe Award. Arenas is one of three SEC players among the semifinalists. The finalists will be announced Nov. 23 and the winner will be named at the Home Depot College Football Awards Show on Dec. 10 in Orlando, Fla.

PEEK AND JONES EARN CoSIDA ACADEMIC ALL-DISTRICT HONORS: Alabama tight end Colin Peek and offensive lineman Barrett Jones were named to the CoSIDA Academic All-District IV Team this week. Peek sports a 3.79 grade point average in finance and is set to graduate in December. The senior has started eight games this season and has 20 catches for 221 yards (11.1 yards per catch) and one touchdown. He was a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference Academic Honor Roll in 2006, 2007 and 2008 at Georgia Tech. Once Peek transferred to Alabama, he was honored on the Southeastern Conference Academic Honor Roll in 2009. Jones boasts a 4.0 grade point average in management and has started all nine games for the Crimson Tide this season at right guard. He has been an integral part of the Tide's rushing success this season with the Crimson Tide averaging 225.64 rushing yards per game to rank 10th nationally. He was a member of the 2009 SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll and has been selected to the President's List in 2008 and 2009 with a 4.0 gpa.

MCCLAIN EARNS NATIONAL HONOR: Alabama linebacker Rolando McClain was named the FWAA/Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week after his performance against Kentucky. McClain, a 6-4, 258-pound junior from Decatur, Ala., registered a game- and season-high 12 tackles (eight unassisted) made his first interception of the 2009 season, forced a fumble that was returned for a touchdown, notched a quarterback hurry and recorded a pass deflection in Alabama's 38-20 victory. McClain's forced fumble led to a 45-yard touchdown return that gave the Crimson Tide a 21-6 halftime lead. Then, his 21-yard interception return on the first possession of the third quarter set up another Alabama touchdown. His third-quarter pass deflection resulted in an interception that led to a field goal.

SPORTING NEWS' MIDSEASON ALL-AMERICANS: Sporting News released its mid-season All-Americans this week with four Alabama Crimson Tide players among the 26-man team. The Tide's top-ranked defense featured standout linebacker Rolando McClain along with senior nose guard Terrence Cody. Sophomore running back Mark Ingram and senior left guard Mike Johnson were tabbed on offense.

MCCLAIN LOTT IMPACT POW: Alabama junior linebacker Rolando McClain was selected as the Lott Trophy IMPACT Player of the Week following the Tide's 20-6 win over No. 22 South Carolina. The Decatur, Ala., native had seven tackles, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss (-2 yards) and one pass breakup in the Crimson Tide's win.

PEEK ON MACKKEY WATCH LIST: Alabama senior tight end Colin Peek was one of 22 players named to the 2009 John Mackey Award Watch List, the Nassau County Sports Commission has announced. The Mackey Award is given annually to best collegiate tight end and the winner will be announced on Dec. 10. Peek has started eight games and played in nine for the top-ranked Crimson Tide and has caught a 20 passes for 221 yards (11.1 per catch) and one touchdown this season. Peek's blocking skills have paved the way for sophomore running back Mark Ingram's SEC-leading 127.2 rushing yards per game this season and 12 touchdowns. In addition, the Crimson Tide offense churns out 225.6 rushing yards per game to rank 10th nationally and second in the SEC.

STAR OF THE WEEK: Senior place-kicker Leigh Tiffin has become accustomed to being named the Lou Groza Award "Star of the Week." He was selected for the award for the third time this season after nailing four field goals and accounting for all of Alabama's points in a 12-10 win over Tennessee. He connected on kicks of 38, 50, 22 and 49 yards in the win. He was also named the Lou Groza Award "Star of the Week" for his efforts in the Crimson Tide's 22-3 win at Mississippi on Oct. 10, when he kicked a career-best five field goals in the win. His first "Star of the Week" recognition this season came at Virginia Tech where he connected on 4-of-5 field goals and two extra points. Tiffin was also named a Lou Groza Award "Star of the Week" twice in 2008.

FRESHMAN ACADEMICS: Alabama's heralded 2008 freshman class did more than just excel on the football field, the Crimson Tide placed 12 rookies on the 2009 SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll, by far the highest total in the SEC with Georgia coming in second with seven honorees. The Tide's freshmen academic honorees were Undra Billingsley, John Michael Boswell, Jerrell Harris, Mark Ingram, Barrett Jones, Chris Jordan, Tyler Love, Wesley Neighbors, Brad Smelley, Corey Smith, Damion Square and Michael Williams. Each student-athlete must have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or above and be on scholarship or a letter winner. They also must completed 24 semester hours of non-remedial credit at the nominating institution and have been a member of the varsity team for the sport's entire NCAA Championship segment.

CRIMSON TIDE TEAM NOTES

FOURTH-QUARTER DOMINANCE: Finishing has been a focus for Alabama over the past two seasons as the Tide has ascended into the nation's elite. And no one in the SEC has been better in the fourth quarter in 2009 than the 11-0 Crimson Tide. Alabama has outscored its opponents 96-24 in the fourth quarter, a margin of 72 points. That number grows to 163-56 in the third and fourth quarters for a margin of 107 points.

10-WIN SEASONS: Alabama's 11-0 record in 2009 gives the Crimson Tide its 30th 10-win season in 115 seasons of football. Alabama's 30 10-win seasons ranks second in college football behind Oklahoma, which has reached the 10-win plateau 31 times. It is the fourth time this decade in which Alabama has had 10 wins in a season (2002, 2005, 2008 and 2009). Alabama head coach Nick Saban is the 11th coach in school history to lead his team to a 10-win season. In addition, Saban is the fifth coach in school history to have more than one 10-win season. Saban led the Crimson Tide to a 12-2 record last season.

NON-SATURDAY GAMES: Alabama and Auburn meet on Friday, Nov. 27, the day after Thanksgiving, marking the 39th time since the formation of the SEC the Tide has played a game on a day besides Saturday. The last time Alabama played a non-Saturday, regular season game was Thursday, Nov. 29, 2001, as the Tide beat Southern Miss, 28-15, at Legion Field. That game was originally scheduled for Sept. 15, 2001 but was rescheduled after the terrorist attacks of Sept. 11, 2001. This year's Alabama-Auburn game is the first regular season game not to be played on Saturday since the Crimson Tide posted a 17-0 win over Auburn on Thanksgiving Day (Nov. 26) in 1992 at Legion Field. For the record, Alabama's first football game was played on Friday Nov. 11, 1892, when the Crimson Tide blanked Birmingham High School 56-0 in Birmingham.

TIDES HAS 10-GAME STREAK FOR 22nd TIME IN HISTORY: Alabama's 11-game winning streak gives them a winning streak of 10 games or more for the 22nd time in school history, an NCAA record. The last time UA owned a 10-game winning streak came during the 2007-08 seasons when UA reeled off 13 consecutive wins. That streak began with a 30-24 win over Colorado in the 2007 Independence Bowl and continued through the 2008 regular season. The streak ended with a 31-20 loss to Florida in the 2008 SEC Championship Game.

ALABAMA SECOND NATIONALLY IN WINS OVER LAST TWO YEARS: Alabama has won 23 games over the past two seasons, which is tied for the second most in the Football Bowl Subdivision. The Crimson Tide won 12 games a season ago and has followed that with a perfect 11-0 record in 2009. Florida leads the nation with 24 wins over the past two years, while Boise State and Texas join Alabama with 23 victories. It is the first time since the 1991 (11 wins) and 1992 (13 wins) seasons that the Crimson Tide has won at least a combined 23 games in back-to-back seasons.

TOTAL WINS (2008-2009)

Team	Total wins	2008/2009
Florida	24	13/11
Alabama	23	12/11
Texas	23	12/11
Boise State	23	12/11
TCU	22	11/11
Utah	21	12/9
Cincinnati	21	11/10
Penn State	21	11/10

FIRST CONSECUTIVE 10-0 STARTS SINCE 1973-74: The victory over Mississippi State moved Alabama to 10-0 for the season. Along with a 12-0 start in 2008, this marks the first time since the 1973 and 1974 seasons that Alabama has constructed 10-0 starts in consecutive seasons. Alabama, which finished 12-2 in 2008, finished 11-1 in both 1973 and 1974 as the Crimson Tide won 11 straight games prior to losing bowl games in those seasons – the Sugar Bowl vs. Notre Dame (24-23 in 1973) and the Orange Bowl vs. Notre Dame (13-11 in 1974).

FIVE STRAIGHT IN THE SEC: Alabama recently won five straight Southeastern Conference games without a bye for just the second time this decade. Alabama also won five straight SEC games without a bye in 2002. What makes this feat even more impressive is that the Crimson Tide is the only SEC team this decade to do it once, much less twice. In 2002, UA rolled off five straight wins without a bye week against Mississippi, Tennessee, Vanderbilt, Mississippi and LSU. In 2009, the Tide beat Arkansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, South Carolina and Tennessee.

ALABAMA 27-1 UNDER SABAN WHEN LEADING AT THE HALF: Before trailing LSU at halftime, 7-3, on Nov. 7, Alabama had led at the half of seven consecutive games. The Crimson Tide is 27-1 when leading at halftime under head coach Nick Saban, including a 20-game winning streak. The only loss came against LSU in 2007 when UA held a 20-17 halftime lead before losing, 41-34, on Nov. 3, 2007, at Bryant-Denny Stadium. The Crimson Tide is 2-5 under Saban when trailing at halftime and 1-2 when tied at halftime. The two wins when trailing at the half came in a 34-24 win over No. 7 Virginia Tech on Sept. 5 in Atlanta and a 24-15 victory over No. 9 LSU on Nov. 7. Alabama's lone win when tied at halftime came last year at LSU, a 27-21 victory over Nov. 8, 2008.

BEST COACHING STARTS: Nick Saban has compiled a 29-8 (.784) record in his career with the Tide and the 29 wins rank as the fourth-most for any Crimson Tide head football coach after 37 games. Wallace Wade holds the record for most wins after 37 games with 33 victories. Frank Thomas is second with 32 wins while Gene Stallings is third with 31. Xen Scott is fifth with 26 and Paul "Bear" Bryant is sixth with 25 wins at this point in their careers. Below are the most wins by UA coaches after the first 37 and 38 career games.

Most Wins (After 38 Games)

Wallace Wade	34
Frank Thomas	33
Gene Stallings	32
Nick Saban	30
Xen Scott	27
Paul "Bear" Bryant	26

Most Wins (After 39 Games)

Wallace Wade	34
Frank Thomas	34
Gene Stallings	33
Xen Scott	27
Paul "Bear" Bryant	27
Ray Perkins	26

TIDE CAPTURES 800TH WIN: The storied Alabama football program captured the program's 800th win on Sept. 5 in Atlanta with a 34-24 win over No. 7 Virginia Tech. Alabama is the seventh school in the Football Bowl Subdivision to reach the 800-win plateau. The Crimson Tide holds an 810-316-43 all-time record for a .711 winning percentage that ranks sixth in FBS history. The other six programs to record 800 wins: Michigan (877); Texas (842); Notre Dame (836); Nebraska (824); Ohio State (817); Penn State (809).

18 NATIONAL TV GAMES IN LAST TWO YEARS: The Auburn game, which will be broadcast on CBS, will be the Crimson Tide's 18th national television game since the start of the 2008 season. UA opened this season with a national ABC broadcast against Virginia Tech and CBS then broadcast the Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee and LSU games. ESPN broadcast the Tide's win over South Carolina in Bryant-Denny Stadium and UA's win at Mississippi State. In 2008, Alabama had 10 of its 14 games broadcast nationally, including five games on CBS, three games on ESPN, one on ABC and one on FOX. The 10 nationally broadcast games last year were tied with Notre Dame for the most in the nation.

FIRST-TIME STARTERS: Sixteen Alabama players (10 on offense, 6 on defense) have made their first career starts for the Crimson Tide this season. On defense, senior linebacker Eryk Anders, sophomore defensive back Mark Barron and sophomore defensive lineman Marcell Dareus were first-time starters against Virginia Tech before sophomore free safety Robby Green made his first career start as the Tide employed five defensive backs on the first play of scrimmage against FIU and Courtney Upshaw got his first start at Kentucky. True freshman Nico Johnson made his first start at will linebacker against South Carolina. On offense, junior left tackle James Carpenter, sophomore center William Vlachos, sophomore right guard Barrett Jones, senior tight end Colin Peek, sophomore tight end/H-back Brad Smelley and junior quarterback Greg McElroy made their first starts against Tech. Against FIU, senior running back Roy Upchurch made his first start for the Crimson Tide. Darius Hanks started his first game vs. North Texas and tight end Michael Williams got his first start vs. LSU.

NFL DRAFT: The Crimson Tide saw four players selected in the 2009 NFL Draft, including first-round pick Andre Smith, who went to the Cincinnati Bengals with the No. 6 overall pick. Glen Coffee (San Francisco), Antoine Caldwell (Houston) and Rashad Johnson (Arizona) all went off the board in the third round. The four picks were the most for the Tide since five players were taken in 2005.

RETURNING SUCCESS: Much of the talk in the preseason was about Alabama's vaunted defense, and the defensive side of the football is where the Crimson Tide returned the biggest portion of its players from last year's Sugar Bowl team. UA features 15 total returning starters and 55 lettermen this season, but eight of those returning starters are on the defensive side of the football with four on offense and both specialists. The Tide returned 90 percent of its lettermen on defense and 73 percent on offense. The defense returns 84 percent of the tackles (728 of 866) from 2008. The special teams returned almost completely intact with place-kicker Leigh Tiffin, punter P.J. Fitzgerald, snapper Brian Selman and return specialist Javier Arenas.

PRESEASON ALL-AMERICANS: The Crimson Tide had five players earn preseason first-team All-America honors prior to the 2009 campaign. Javier Arenas, Terrence Cody, Mike Johnson, Julio Jones and Rolando McClain have garnered at least one first-team designation. McClain leads the way with six first-team honors.

ALABAMA'S TV RECORD: Alabama has compiled a 187-115-5 (.617) all-time record in 307 televised games. This does not include pay-per-view, tape-delayed or closed circuit telecasts. The Crimson Tide owns a 162-96-3 (.626) record in 261 regular-season televised games.

OVERTIME RECORD: Alabama is 4-7 (.364) all-time in overtime games. In its last overtime game, the Crimson Tide defeated LSU, 27-21, at Tiger Stadium on Nov. 8, 2008. Alabama has lost six of its last nine overtime games. The Crimson Tide is 4-6 (.400) in overtime games against SEC teams. Alabama is 2-4 (.333) in overtime home games. The Crimson Tide is 3-4 (.429) in single-overtime games.

NICK'S KIDS: At Michigan State, head coach Nick Saban and his wife Terry started the "Nick's Kids" Foundation, which the Sabans have continued in Tuscaloosa. Since their arrival at the University of Alabama, the Sabans have helped raise over $1 million - including over $300,000 this year - for "Nick's Kids" and made a total of more than 160 donations to children's charities throughout the state of Alabama.

STADIUM RENOVATION: The newest expansion project for Bryant-Denny Stadium will see an increase in seating capacity to approximately 101,000, keeping it among the largest on-campus football stadiums in the nation. The expansion, which is expected to be complete for the beginning of the 2010 season, will be the fourth expansion of this magnificent edifice since 1988 and the seventh expansion in the stadium's history. This renovation will mirror north end zone project that was completed in 2006. It will consist of roughly 8,500 additional seats, 1,700 South Zone Club seats, two corner video boards, an upper concourse with concessions and restrooms, 36 skyboxes, offices Donors Hall of Fame and an outdoor market for food and merchandise.

NEW HIRES: The Alabama football staff features two new faces in 2009, including linebackers' coaches Sal Sunseri and James Willis. Sunseri joins the staff spending the last seven seasons as the defensive line coach for the NFL's Carolina Panthers where he coached the likes of Pro Bowl players Julius Peppers, Mike Rucker and Kris Jenkins. Willis joined Saban's staff after spending three years with Auburn where he worked with former Saban assistant Will Muschamp. He spent seven seasons in the NFL prior to beginning his coaching career.

TOP AIDES: Alabama's coaching staff has a wealth of knowledge across all levels of football. The nine-man Crimson Tide staff features a former head coach at the Bowl Subdivision level in Bobby Williams (Michigan State). The staff also has six coaches that have spent time as assistant coaches in the NFL in Bo Davis (Dolphins), Jim McElwain (Raiders), Joe Pendry (19 years with multiple teams), Kirby Smart (Dolphins), Sal Sunseri (Panthers) and Bobby Williams (Lions and Dolphins). Alabama's coaching staff boasts 40-plus years of combined NFL coaching experience.

THREE TIDE PLAYERS NAMED PLAYBOY ALL-AMERICANS: Alabama landed three players on the 2009 Playboy Magazine annual preseason College Football All-America Team. Rolando McClain was selected as a linebacker while Julio Jones was picked at wide receiver and Javier Arenas was the return specialist. Alabama has now had four Playboy All-Americans in the last two years after Andre Smith was chosen in 2008.

BURNS AND COCHRAN HONORED: Associate head coach and running backs coach Burton Burns along with head strength and conditioning coach Scott Cochran were named the nation's best at their respective fields in 2008. Burns was named college football's 2008 FootballScoop Running Backs Coach of the Year, while Cochran was tabbed as the 2008 Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year for his work with the Crimson Tide in the weight room.

CRIMSON TIDE PLAYERS ON NFL ROSTERS: The Alabama football program was well represented throughout the NFL with the opening of the 2009 season with former players and coaches dotting league rosters. The Tide has 36 former players and coaches working in the NFL this season. The Crimson Tide is also represented on 17 of the league's 30 teams. Four former Alabama players and coaches are with the defending Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers, including defensive back DeShea Townsend and assistant coaches John Mitchell (assistant head coach/DL), Bruce Arians (offensive coordinator/QBs) and Amos Jones (special teams). The Crimson Tide has 21 current NFL players, including 18 on active rosters and two more on practice squads or injured reserve. There are 13 former UA players and/or coaches serving as assistant coaches in the NFL this season, including Sylvester Croom (St. Louis), Freddie Kitchens (Arizona) and Richard Williamson (Carolina).

A-DAY SUCCESS: Alabama has led the SEC in spring football game attendance each of the last three seasons, averaging 84,769 fans for Coach Nick Saban's three A-Day football games at Bryant-Denny Stadium. Alabama dew a then-NCAA record 92,138 fans for Saban's first spring football game on April 21, 2007. In 2008, Alabama led the SEC again with 78,200 fans for it's A-Day game on April 12. The Tide again set the pace in the SEC with 84,050 fans on April 17, 2009.

CRIMSON TIDE OPPONENT NOTES

ALABAMA-AUBURN SERIES: The Alabama Crimson Tide and Auburn Tigers meet in the 74th Iron Bowl on Friday, Saturday, Nov. 27, 2009 at Jordan-Hare Stadium in Auburn. Alabama holds a 39-33-1 lead in a series that dates back to the 1893 season. The Crimson Tide and Tigers first met on Feb. 22, 1893 at Birmingham's Lakeview Park with the Tigers claiming 32-22 victory in the inaugural meeting. Alabama snapped a six-game series losing streak with a 36-0 win last year in Tuscaloosa. This is the 10th meeting between the two schools at Jordan-Hare Stadium, with the first meeting taking place 20 years ago, when the Tigers beat the Crimson Tide 30-20 on Dec. 2, 1989. Auburn owns a 7-2 series lead in games played at Jordan-Hare Stadium, with Alabama's wins coming in 1999 (28-17) and 2001 (31-7).

MORE SERIES LORE: Just about everyone knows of the rich history and tradition associated with the Alabama-Auburn series, but some people may not be aware that the rivalry was discontinued for more than 40 years in the first half of the 20th century. A few seemingly minor disagreements between the teams resulted in the series being cancelled in 1908. It was not resumed until the 1948 season. Though there are myths about fighting and other violence necessitating a dismissal of the series, the truth is that the only problems between the two teams emerged over the referee and per diem money for the players. In winning the 1906 game, Alabama used an offensive formation that Auburn head coach Mike Donahue declared illegal. After Alabama implemented a similar formation in 1907, Auburn insisted that their next meeting be officiated by an umpire from outside the South. Alabama thought this request to be ludicrous, and that became the first matter of disagreement between the two schools. The second conflict, which was over per diem, essentially amounted to $33. Each team was allowed 22 players on its roster. Auburn wanted each player to receive $3.50, while Alabama thought the amount should be only two dollars. After arguing for several months over these two matters, the teams finally reached a compromise and decided not to play in 1908. By this point, however, their schedules had been set for the season, and neither team's opponents were willing to move. Alabama suggested playing the game after Thanksgiving, but Auburn's Board of Trustees would not allow them to play beyond the holiday. Thus, the game was not played in 1908, and it was not placed on the schedule the following year. Attempts to revive the game in 1911, 1919, 1932 and 1944 all failed. Finally, in the spring of 1948, behind the initiative of Alabama President John Galilee, an agreement was reached to resume the series in Birmingham that fall. Prior to the game, student body presidents Gilis Cammock of Alabama and Willie Johns of Auburn participated in a symbolic "burying of the hatchet" ceremony at Woodrow Wilson Park in Birmingham. The two teams rekindled their rivalry at Legion Field on Dec. 4, 1948 and have played annually since then.

UA-AU WINNER GETS "FOY TROPHY": On July 13, 1948, the two circles of Omicron Delta Kappa, national leadership honor society from the University of Alabama and Auburn University joined together to sponsor a trophy devoted to sportsmanship between the two universities. The ODK-James E. Foy V Sportsmanship Trophy is a tradition which symbolizes the good relationship between the two schools. Originally the trophy was displayed in Birmingham in Loveman's store window the week prior to the football game between the two universities. Then, in a parade preceding the game, the trophy would be carried in a convertible with the Omicron Delta Kappa presidents from each school on either side. The parade was stopped in the 1960s but the trophy has continued to be awarded every year. The trophy is now awarded to the winner at halftime of the Alabama-Auburn basketball game on the winner's home court. The trophy remains in their care until the next year's presentation takes place. In January 1978, the trophy was dedicated to Dean James E. Foy V upon his retirement as the Dean of Student Affairs at Auburn University. He began serving in that position in 1950 after serving as Assistant Dean of Students at the University of Alabama.

IRON BOWL RANKINGS: For the 26th time since 1980 at least one team is ranked in the Associated Press Top 25 entering the annual Iron Bowl. Neither team was ranked in 1982, 1998 and 2003. Alabama is No. 2 in the current AP poll and is ranked entering the Iron Bowl for the 36th time in history. The Crimson Tide is 25-10 against the Tigers when ranked in the AP poll. Auburn has been ranked a total of 26 times in Iron Bowl history and has compiled an 18-8 record when ranked in the AP Top 25. The highest ranked team owns a 40-10 record in the series since 1955.

TELEVISED GAMES: The 2009 Alabama-Auburn game will be the 35th televised game in the series, dating back to the series' first televised game in 1964. Alabama owns an 18-16 record in the previous 34 TV games. The Alabama-Auburn game is being televised for the 16th consecutive year and for the 28th time in the last 30 years this season from Auburn. CBS Sports will televise its 11th Iron Bowl this season.

SABAN VERSUS AUBURN: Alabama head coach Nick Saban is 3-4 in his career against the Auburn Tigers, including last year's 36-0 win at Bryant-Denny Stadium. Saban made his Alabama debut in the Nov. 24, 2007, Iron Bowl at Jordan-Hare Stadium. Saban was 2-3 against the Tigers while the head coach at LSU from 2000-04.

IRON BOWL COACHING RECORDS: Former Alabama head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant holds the Iron Bowl record for most games coached (25) and most wins (19). Here is a look at the all-time Iron Bowl coaching records entering the 2008 season.

All-Time Wins (Alabama-Auburn Series)

J.B. Whitworth	1955-57	0-3 (.000)
Bill Curry	1987-89	0-3 (.000)

CROSSING ENEMY LINES: Auburn alumnus G.H. Harvey is the only person to serve as head football coach at both Auburn and Alabama. He coached Auburn to a 3-0-2 record in his lone season with the Tigers in 1893, included in that record was a 40-16 win over Alabama on Nov. 30 at Montgomery's Riverside Park. Harvey also served as head coach at Alabama during the 1901 season, compiling 2-1-2 record, which included a 17-0 loss to Auburn in the first ever meeting in Tuscaloosa on Nov. 15, 1901. Harvey's combined coaching record with Auburn and Alabama was 5-1-4 in 10 games as head coach. Bill "Brother" Oliver, who played at Alabama in 1960s and then later served as an assistant coach under Bryant and Stallings at Alabama, was Auburn's interim head coach in 1998. Oliver took over midway through the season for Terry Bowden, who resigned in October, and coached the Tigers to a 2-3 record, including a 31-17 loss to the Crimson Tide.

College 121-50-1 (.706)

Total 136-67-1 (.668)

- Saban brings a 121-50-1 (.706) record as a college head coach into his third season in Tuscaloosa. He has three conference championships and nine teams have played in post-season bowl games, including a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl last season.

- Saban is one of two (Bob Stoops, Oklahoma) current Football Bowl Subdivision coach to coach for at least 10 years and not suffer a losing season. In 2008, Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history as Alabama went from seven wins in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008. He also garnered six national coach of the year awards last year, including the Home Depot Coach of the year, the FWAA/Eddie Robinson, Associated Press, Sporting News, Walter Camp and Liberty Mutual. Saban also spent a little time behind the camera during the offseason. He flew to Los Angeles and film an ESPN College GameDay commercial with Kirk Herbstreit and Chris Fowler. Saban also filmed scenes for the movie Blindside, which chronicles the life of former Mississippi offensive tackle Michael Oher.

- His most recent college head coaching stint, a five-season run at LSU, produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC West Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games including two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. The Tigers constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by the Birmingham News in 2001 and by the Associated Press in 2003).

- Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in just one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record as head coach.

- In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking as MSU finished in a tie for second in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season. The Spartans' performance that year landed them a spot in the Citrus Bowl. The Spartans led the Big Ten in rushing defense (77.0 yards per game) and total defense (299.0 yards per game) while ranking fifth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense. The Michigan State offense averaged 31.0 points per game.

- Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points), and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

- A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born October 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen.

- Saban also is a published author. He co-authored "Tiger Turnaround" in 2001, a book documenting his first two years as head coach at LSU, and co-authored "How Good Do You Want to Be" in 2005, a book that offers real-life principles for success at work and at home.

- At Michigan State, Saban started the "Nick's Kids" Foundation, which the Sabans continue here in Tuscaloosa. Since their arrival at the University of Alabama, the Saban's have helped raise more than $1 million - including more than $300,000 this year - for "Nick's Kids" and made a total of more than 160 donations to children's charities throughout the state of Alabama.

- Saban and his wife, Terry, supported several charitable and civic projects in Louisiana. The largest of those efforts was with the Children's Miracle Network, for which Terry and Nick raised more than $100,000 a year for children.

- Saban was on the cover of the Sept. 1 issue of Forbes magazine. The article, written by Monte Burke, examines Saban and his guidance of Crimson Tide program. The cover features Saban with Bryant-Denny Stadium in the background. Saban is the first college football coach to be featured on the cover of Forbes since the publication began in 1917.

- The Saban's pledged $1 million to the University for scholarships in June of 2008. The Saban scholarships are designed specifically for first-generation college students. Six first-generation college students have already benefitted from the $100,000 gift the Saban's made upon their arrival at the Capstone in January 2007.

HISTORY OF ALABAMA FOOTBALL

- The University of Alabama is in its 115th football season and has compiled an 810-316-43 (.711) all-time record in 1,169 games.
- Alabama won its 800th game on Sept. 5, 2009, with a 34-24 win over No. 7 Virginia Tech in the Chick-fil-A College Kickoff at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The Tide is the seventh program in Football Bowl Subdivision history to win 800 games.
- The Crimson Tide played its first football game on Nov. 11, 1892, with a 56-0 win over Birmingham High School in Birmingham.
- Alabama is tied for fifth among Division I schools in terms of all-time wins.
- The Crimson Tide football legacy includes 12 national championships, 21 SEC championships and 92 All-Americans.
- UA also ranks among the best in post-season play, holding the NCAA record for most bowl games (56) and most bowl wins (31).
- Alabama ranks second all-time in NCAA history with 30 10-win seasons. Alabama's enduring success on the gridiron is further reflected in the fact that the Crimson Tide has recorded seasons with 10 or more wins in nine different decades since the first double-digit win season in 1920 (10-1).
- Alabama has compiled a 354-159-20 (.683) record in 533 SEC games since 1933.
- Alabama has played in more SEC games (533), has more wins (354) and has won more league titles (21) than any team in SEC history. The Tide also has more SEC wins than Kentucky, Vanderbilt, Arkansas and South Carolina combined.
- Alabama is the only SEC school to win a championship in every decade since the 1930s. The Crimson Tide's last SEC Championship came in 1999.
- Alabama became the first team in NCAA history to win 100 games in a decade in the 1970s. The Crimson Tide posted a 103-16-1 (.863) record from 1970-79, which included eight SEC Championships and three national titles.

BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM

- Alabama's on-campus home since 1929, Bryant-Denny Stadium is one of college football's most scenic venues.
- The Crimson Tide has compiled an all-time record of 225-46-3 (.827) in 274 games at Bryant-Denny Stadium.
- The stadium was originally named for former University of Alabama President Dr. George H. Denny. Dr. Denny was named UA President on Jan. 1, 1912 and amassed an extraordinary career that spanned almost a quarter of a century.
- Bryant-Denny Stadium and Denny Chimes (located on the UA quadrangle) stand as reminders of Denny's legacy to the Capstone.
- In 1976, the State of Alabama Legislature and the UA Board of Trustees added coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's name to the stadium, thus calling Alabama's football home Bryant-Denny Stadium.
- Alabama's Sept. 2, 2006 season opener against Hawai'i drew a state-record 92,138 fans. The previous Bryant-Denny Stadium record was 86,869 on October 23, 1999, against Tennessee.

ALL-TIME TUSCALOOSA RECORD

- In addition to its impressive record at Bryant-Denny Stadium (1929-present), Alabama has made Tuscaloosa a very difficult place to play for opposing football teams.
- Alabama has compiled a 310-59-3 (.837) record in 372 games in Tuscaloosa. The Crimson Tide captured their 300th win in Tuscaloosa on Oct. 18, 2008, vs. Mississippi.
- Alabama's first game on campus was a 4-0 loss to Birmingham Athletic Club on Oct. 14, 1893.
- From 1911-28, Alabama posted a 55-2 (.965) record in Tuscaloosa. The 1929 season marked the opening of what is now known as Bryant-Denny Stadium.
- Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant posted a remarkable 72-2 (.973) record in Tuscaloosa, losing only to Florida (1963) and Southern Miss (1982). The USM game was the last game Bryant coached at Bryant-Denny Stadium.
- From 1963-82, Alabama posted an NCAA record 57-game home winning streak.
- Miami has since broken that record with a 58-game home winning streak, but the Hurricanes' record also includes three wins in the post-season Orange Bowl game. All of UA's 57 wins were in the regular season.
- The 57-game winning streak is one of seven winning streaks longer than 15 games for the Crimson Tide in Tuscaloosa.
- Alabama posted a 19-game unbeaten streak in Tuscaloosa from 1928-35.
- The Crimson Tide currently have a 14-game winning streak at Bryant-Denny Stadium.
