GAME 13: ALABAMA (12-0, 8-0 SEC)

VS. FLORIDA (12-0, 8-0 SEC)

SATURDAY, DECEMBER 5, 2009 • 3 P.M. CST • CBS

GEORGIA DOME (71,500) • ATLANTA, GA.

THE GAME: The No. 2/3 University of Alabama football team makes its second straight trip to the Southeastern Conference Championship Game to face the top-ranked Florida Gators on Saturday, December 5, 2009. It will be the 36th meeting between the two schools in a series that dates back to 1904. The game is scheduled for a 3 p.m. (CST) kickoff at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta, Ga., and will be televised by CBS with Verne Lundquist, Gary Danielson and Tracy Wolfson calling the action. Eli Gold, Phil Savage and Barry Krauss will have the radio call on the Crimson Tide Sports Network.

HEAD COACH NICK SABAN: Alabama head coach Nick Saban (Kent State, 1973) is in his third season with the Crimson Tide. He was named the school's 27th head coach on January 3, 2007. Saban has compiled a 122-50-1 (.708) record as a collegiate head coach with a 31-8 (.795) mark at Alabama that includes a 12-0 record this year with a perfect 8-0 mark in the SEC. Saban has now won 10 games in back-to-back seasons for the first time in his career. He captured his 100th career win and coached his 150th game as a collegiate head coach during the 2008 campaign. In 2003, Saban led LSU to a 13-1 record and the BCS National Championship. Overall, Saban has coached three conference championship teams (1990 Mid-American, 2001 SEC and 2003 SEC) and nine of his 12 teams have played in post-season bowl games with Alabama already bowl eligible this season. Saban is one of two (Bob Stoops) current Football Bowl Subdivision coaches to coach for at least 10 years and not suffer a losing season.

RANKINGS: The Crimson Tide is ranked No. 2 in the Associated Press poll, No. 2 in the BCS standings, No. 3 in the Harris Poll and No. 3 in the USA Today Coaches' poll this week following a 26-21 win at Auburn. Alabama has been ranked as high as No. 1 in the AP poll and No. 2 in the coaches' poll this season. UA garnered seven first-place votes in the AP poll and three in the coaches' poll this week. Alabama was ranked fifth in both the AP and USA Today Coaches' preseason polls, the highest preseason ranking for the Tide since the 2000 season when Alabama opened at No. 3.

ALABAMA-FLORIDA SERIES: Alabama and Florida will be meeting for the 36th time this Saturday with the Crimson Tide holding a 21-14 edge in the series. Alabama and Florida are meeting for the seventh time in the SEC Championship Game with the Gators holding a 4-2 lead in the previous six meetings. Alabama earned SEC Championships with wins over Florida in 1992 and 1999. Florida beat Alabama for the SEC title in 1993, 1994, 1996 and 2008. The Gators beat the Crimson Tide, 31-20, last year to advance to the BCS National Championship Game.

NEXT GAME: The Crimson Tide's next game will be Alabama's NCAA-record 57th bowl game. The outcome of the SEC Championship Game will determine where the Crimson Tide will go bowling this season. Bowl Championship Series and bowl game announcements will be made on the evening of Sunday, December 6.

ALABAMA DEGREES: Alabama's success on the field over the past two-and-a-half seasons under the direction of head coach Nick Saban has coincided with success in the classroom. An impressive total of 13 active Crimson Tide players are playing this season with degrees already in hand, including Eryk Anders (health studies), Drew Davis (marketing), P.J. Fitzgerald (management), Mike Johnson (consumer affairs), Tyrone King (health studies), Greg McElroy (business marketing), Cory Reamer (finance), Chris Rogers (consumer affairs), Brian Selman (business marketing), Ali Sharrief (human environmental science), Travis Sikes (consumer affairs), Heath Thomas and Lorenzo Washington (human environmental science). McElroy finished his undergraduate degree in only three years with a 3.86 grade point average while graduating magna cum laude. Additionally, another 10 players are on track to graduate in December of 2009. In 2008, Alabama had six active players with degrees already in hand.

TIDE LEADS NATION IN GRADUATES: Alabama's 13 graduates on the 2009 roster are the most of any school in the Bowl Championship Subdivision. The Crimson Tide is five graduates ahead of any other SEC school with Auburn checking in fifth with eight graduates. Boston College and Virginia Tech (the Tide's season-opening opponent) are tied for second with 10 graduates while Penn State is fourth with nine (see sidebar for complete list).

ALABAMA RANKS 2ND NATIONALLY IN GRADUATION RATE AMONG TOP 25: Alabama is tied for second nationally with a 75 percent federal graduation rate, which was released recently by the NCAA, among teams ranked in this week's Associated Press top 25. The Crimson Tide and Miami Hurricanes both trailed Penn State, who graduated 89 percent.

BEATING THE BEST: Alabama is 7-2 against the Associated Press Top 25 over the 2008 and 2009 seasons. The Crimson Tide's 24-15 win over No. 9 LSU on November 7 was the Tide's fourth win over a top-10 team dating back to the start of the 2008 season. Alabama is 4-0 against the AP Top 25 in the 2009 season.

Alabama vs. Top 25 Opponents (since the start of the 2008 season)

ALABAMA IN THE BCS RANKINGS: Alabama is ranked second in this week's Bowl Championship Series standings released on Sunday, November 29. The Crimson Tide (.9513) trails No. 1 Florida (.9868) by a margin of just .0355 with Texas in third at .9282. The Tide is ranked No. 3 in the Harris Interactive poll and the USA Today Coaches poll but is tied at No. 1 with Florida in the average of all six computer rankings, while third-place Texas is fourth in the computers. TCU is fourth in the BCS with an average of 0.8689 with Cincinnati fifth (.8096).

Team	BCS Average	Harris Average	Coaches Average	Computer Average
1. Florida	.9868	.9851 (1)	.9953 (1)	.980 (t-1)
2. Alabama	.9513	.9384 (3)	.9356 (3)	.980 (t-1)

5. Cincinnati	.8096	.8294 (5)	.8346 (5)	.900 (3)

SABAN AMONG THE BEST: Head coach Nick Saban's arrival in Tuscaloosa has seen his Crimson Tide vault up the national rankings. That success in such a short period of time has quickly impacted the Tide's record book. Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history as Alabama went from seven wins in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008. He is one of two coaches (Bob Stoops, Oklahoma) in the Football Bowl Subdivision (FBS) football to have coached 10 years and never suffered through a losing season. Saban achieved another first in 2009 with back-to-back 10-win seasons. He also ranks fifth in winning percentage (70.8 percent) among active coaches who have coached at least 10 years of FBS football.

CRIMSON TIDE DEFENSIVE NOTES

BAMA DEFENSE GETTING STRONGER: Alabama's defense has strengthened down the stretch of the 2009 season, ranking in the top five in every major defensive category. The Crimson Tide ranks third nationally in total defense (233.92 yards per game) while leading the nation in pass efficiency defense (85.88), ranking second in rushing defense (77.08 ypg) and scoring defense (10.83 points per game). Alabama is fifth nationally in pass defense, allowing 156.83 ypg. The UA defense has surrendered only eight touchdowns in eight Southeastern Conferences games this season and has held five SEC teams to single-digit scoring. The Crimson Tide has won six of its eight SEC games by two or more scores.

Alabama's SEC Defense

Team	TD (s)	Points	Rushing	Passing	Total Offense
Arkansas	1	7	63	191	254
at Kentucky	2	20	133	168	301
at Mississippi	0	3	57	140	197
South Carolina	0	6	64	214	278
Tennessee	1	10	74	265	339
LSU	2	15	95	158	253
at Mississippi State	0	3	114	99	213
at Auburn	2	21	151	181	332

DOMINANT 'D': Alabama returned eight starters from a 2008 defense that finished third nationally in total defense, allowing 263.5 yards per game. The 2009 unit has even better numbers, allowing a total of 233.92 yards per game in 12 games to rank third nationally. The Tide opened the season by holding Virginia Tech to 155 total yards (64 rushing, 91 passing). UA held FIU to 214 total yards, including only one yard rushing, while North Texas could manage only 187 yards of offense and 61 yards rushing. Arkansas managed 63 on the ground, while the Tide limited Mississippi to 197 yards and 57 rushing, including 19 yards of total offense in the first half. UA then held No. 22 South Carolina to 64 yards rushing and six points. LSU totaled 253 yards, but had only 95 on the ground. Mississippi State could only muster 99 yards through the air and 213 total yards. Alabama held Chattanooga to 84 total yards, including 48 rushing and 36 passing.

McCLAIN HEART AND SOUL OF TIDE DEFENSE: Junior middle linebacker Rolando McClain has proven to be the heart and soul of the Tide's defense and may be the most complete linebacker in the country. The Butkus Award and Lott Trophy finalist not only leads the team in tackles with 96, but is virtually an on-the-field coach for Alabama. McClain is responsible for making all of the defensive calls and is especially proficient at checking the Crimson Tide into the correct alignment. Almost impossible to block, McClain is either making the tackle or forcing the play into the waiting arms of another Tide defender. The remainder of his stat line: 12.0 tackles for loss (-57 yards), 4.0 sacks (-36 yards), two interceptions (21 return yards), two pass breakups, 11 quarterback hurries and a forced fumble. McClain's play has garnered him extensive national recognition. He was the FWAA/Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week after his performance against Kentucky. McClain has also been named a midseason All-American by Sporting News and selected as a semifinalist for the Lombardi Award as well as the Chuck Bednarik Award, which goes to the best defensive player in the nation.

AIR DEFENSE: Alabama's defense has smothered almost every aspect of opposing offenses in 2009. While much attention is earned by the Tide's suffocating rush defense, Alabama has also effectively thwarted passing attacks. The Tide boasts the nation's top-ranked pass efficiency defense, with an 85.88 opponent passer rating. The Tide is also fifth in pass defense, allowing 156.83 yards per game while ranking seventh with 19 interceptions. Over the last four games, UA has limited LSU, Mississippi State, Chattanooga and Auburn to a total of 474 passing yards (118.5 ypg). A game-by-game look at opponents' passing numbers in 2009:

Chris Todd/Kodi Burns, Auburn	15-27-181	55.56	2-1	128.90

GROUND DEFENSE: The Crimson Tide has not allowed a 100-yard rusher in an astonishing 32 games, dating back to Oct. 13, 2007, when Mississippi's BenJarvus Green-Ellis went for 131 yards. That is the longest streak in the nation, 10 games more than second-place Ohio State

ALABAMA IN THE AP

Alabama has been ranked in 641 of the 1,003 Associated Press college football polls since 1936, according to the AP Poll Archive. The Crimson Tide owns a 384-128-10 all-time record in games when ranked in the Associated Press college football poll, including an 24-5 mark under head coach Nick Saban. The Crimson Tide is also ranked in the AP poll for the 27th consecutive game (including all 14 last season), its longest streak since the mid 1990s when UA was ranked for 71 consecutive weeks under Coach Gene Stallings.

UA IN THE COACHES' POLL

The Crimson Tide has enjoyed much success in the coaches rankings over the last half century. The United Press International debuted the coaches poll in 1950 and ran the poll through the 1990 season. The USA Today took over the poll in 1991 and has run the poll for the last 19 seasons. Alabama was ranked No. 5 in the 2009 preseason coaches' poll after not being ranked in last year's preseason poll. Alabama entered the rankings after beating Clemson and was ranked in the coaches poll for the remainder of the season, reaching No. 1 in the polls for five weeks in November. The Tide has five UPI (1961, 1964, 1973 and 1979) and USA Today (1992) coaches poll national titles.

(22 games). Alabama is one of five teams not to allow a 100-yard rusher in 2009 and is the only team not to surrender a 100-yard rusher in 2008 or 2009. As a team, the Crimson Tide has held 21 teams under 100 yards rushing over the past 26 games with only LSU and Florida in 2008 and Kentucky, Mississippi State and Auburn in 2009 able to crack the 100-yard barrier as a team.

Teams That Have Not Allowed a 100-Yard Rusher in 2009

Team	Consecutive Games	Last time it happened (Opponent)
Alabama	31	Oct. 13, 2007 (Mississippi)
Ohio State	22	Sept. 13, 2008 (USC)

STIFLING DEFENSE PUTS UP IMPRESSIVE NUMBERS: Alabama's defense over the past 26 games - or two seasons - has held opponents under 200 yards of total offense in 10 games, including a 155-yard effort by Virginia Tech, a 187-yard showing by North Texas, a 197-yard game by Mississippi and a 84-yard outing vs. Chattanooga in 2009. The sub-200-yard games in that span: Clemson (188); Western Kentucky (158); Tennessee (173); Arkansas State (158); Mississippi State (167); Auburn (170); Virginia Tech (155); North Texas (187); Mississippi (197).

DEFENSE TOUGH ON THIRD DOWN: The Crimson Tide defense has been strong on third down in 2009, ranking fifth nationally and allowing a 28.92 conversion rate (48 for 166). Alabama's performance at Mississippi on October 10 was special. UA did not allow the Rebels a single third-down conversion as UM went 0 for 9. UA held Virginia Tech to just two conversions on 12 third down attempts (16.7 percent). Florida International was just 7 for 17 (41.1%) on third down while North Texas could only convert at a rate of 28.5 percent (4 for 14). The Tide opened SEC play by limiting Arkansas to 2 for 14 on third down (14.3 percent) and then held Kentucky to 4 of 13 (30.8 percent). LSU converted just 5 of 14 (35.7 percent) and Mississippi State managed just a 15.4 percent conversion rate (2 for 13). Chattanooga was 3 for 13 on third down (23.08) and Auburn was 4 of 12 (33.3 percent). The Crimson Tide finished third nationally in third down conversion defense in 2008, holding opponents to a 28.14 percent (56 of 199) conversion rate.

FORCING TURNOVERS: Alabama has produced 21 turnovers in the last eight games, forcing five turnovers at Mississippi, four at Kentucky, two against South Carolina, one vs. Tennessee, one vs. LSU, three at Mississippi State, three vs. Chattanooga and two at Auburn. The Tide has picked off 17 passes in those eight games and recovered four fumbles. The Crimson Tide ranks fifth nationally in turnover margin at plus-15 (1.25 per game). Alabama has forced 74 turnovers in 39 games under head coach Nick Saban (an average of 1.90 per game) forcing 25 turnovers in 12 games this season, while the UA offense has only turned the ball over 10 times (4 interceptions, 6 fumbles) in 2009. Alabama forced 24 turnovers in 2007 for a plus-4 turnover ratio and then recorded 25 turnovers and ended the season with a plus-6 turnover margin in 2008. Alabama has recorded at least one turnover in 34 of 39 games under Saban. UA is 28-6 under Saban when gaining at least one turnover. Alabama is 3-2 in games without a turnover over the last three seasons.

PASS RUSH IMPORTANT FOR BAMA DEFENSE: The Alabama defense has 31 sacks on the season, five more sacks than the Tide recorded in 14 games in 2008. UA ranks 25th nationally while ranking third in the SEC in sacks with 2.58 per game. The Florida offensive line has surrendered an average of just 2.33 sacks per game to rank 81st nationally. Defensive end Marcell Dareus leads Alabama with 0.54 sacks per game (6.5 for 44 yards in losses) while Javier Arenas and Eryk Anders are second on the team with 5.0 sacks while Rolando McClain is fourth with four sacks. UA ranks 16th nationally in tackles for loss (TFL), averaging 7.17 per game. That mark also ranks second in the SEC and accounts for 415 lost yards by UA opponents. McClain, Arenas and Anders are tied for the team lead with 12.0 tackles for loss while Dareus is fourth with nine TFL.

BARRON NOTCHES 7TH INTERCEPTION: Alabama sophomore safety Mark Barron intercepted an Auburn pass in the third quarter last Friday, November 27, his seventh interception of the 2009 season. That total ranks tied for third on the Alabama single-season interceptions list.

Interceptions (Season)

10	Hootie Ingram (163 yards)	1952
8	Harry Gilmer (79 yards)	1946
7	Steve Higginbotham (108 yards)	1971
7	Jeremiah Castille (60 yards)	1982
7	Antonio Langham (67 yards)	1993
7	Kevin Jackson (44 yards)	1996
7	Mark Barron (125 yards)	2009

BARRON MAKING PRESENCE KNOWN: Safety Mark Barron might not be the first safety prominent in the minds of the national media, but the Mobile, Ala., native is making a strong bid for first-team All-SEC recognition and may be worthy of much more. Barron is tied for fourth nationally while leading the SEC with seven interceptions. He also has 63 tackles to rank third on the Alabama defense, which ranks near the top nationally in almost every defensive category. Barron leads the SEC in passes defended with 17 (10 passes broken up, 7 interceptions) and ranks second nationally with 1.42 passes defended per game.

DAREUS MAKES A NAME FOR HIMSELF: Sophomore defensive lineman Marcell Dareus has been dominant in 2009 with 30 tackles, 9.0 tackles for loss (-49 yards) and 6.5 quarterback sacks (-44 yards) to rank eighth in the Southeastern Conference and tied for 61st nationally. Dareus had a breakout game in the season opener against Virginia Tech with 1.5 sacks. He followed that up with a four-tackle outing against Florida International in which he posted two sacks for 17 yards in losses. Dareus had two solo stops vs. Arkansas with a tackle for loss (-1). He then recorded a sack, four tackles and a pass breakup in a win over Tennessee before notching two more sacks in a win over LSU.

DEADERICK UNDAUNTED: Senior defensive tackle Brandon Deaderick completed a miraculous return to the playing field with an appearance in the Crimson Tide's win over Virginia Tech, just five days after being shot by an unknown assailant on the night of Monday, August 31, in Tuscaloosa. Deaderick, who suffered non-life threatening injuries to his left forearm and hip in the incident, was cleared for action by team doctors. He saw his first action on special teams with 6:35 left to play in the first quarter on Virginia Tech's point-after conversion following a 98-yard kickoff return for a touchdown that tied the game at 6-6. Deaderick saw action on defense with 3:00 left in the first quarter. He finished with one solo tackle vs. the Hokies. He has played in all 12 games this season with seven starts. He has accounted for 21 tackles, 3.5 tackles for loss and a sack.

CRIMSON TIDE OFFENSIVE NOTES

AT HIS BEST, AGAINST THE BEST: Sophomore running back Mark Ingram has been at his best against the best in 2009. He has rolled up 1,675 all-purpose yards and 15 touchdowns while averaging 119.08 yards per game on the ground with 12 rushing touchdowns in 12 games. But those numbers climb even higher when the Crimson Tide's opponent is ranked in the top 25. In UA's four games with top-25 opponents - including two ranked in the top 10 - Ingram has accounted for 712 yards on the ground (178.0 ypg) with three touchdowns. He has also caught 13 passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to account for 831 all-purpose yards (203.25 ypg) in those four games.

Ingram broke free for 150 rushing yards and a touchdown while catching three passes for 35 yards and a score in the season-opener against Virginia Tech. He scampered for 172 yards on the ground, including a 36-yard touchdown run on fourth down at Mississippi. Ingram then exploded for a Bryant-Denny Stadium record 246 yards and a game-clinching touchdown vs. South Carolina and then pounded out 144 yards with five receptions for 30 yards vs. No. 9 LSU.

The Tide's games against ranked opponents are also when he has best displayed his hard-to-tackle running style that has led to 484 total yards after contact (121.0 ypg), including 115 yards vs. Virginia Tech, 95 yards after contact at Mississippi, 167 yards against South Carolina and 107 after contact against No. 9 LSU.

INGRAM OFF TO THE RACES: Mark Ingram is producing a 2009 season that has made him a strong contender for the Doak Walker Award, which goes to the nation's top running back, and he is firmly in the hunt for the Heisman Trophy. He has rushed for 1,429 yards and 12 touchdowns in 12 games this season for 119.08 yards per game average to rank 11th nationally and second in the SEC in rushing. Ingram has also added 28 receptions for 246 yards and three scores. Below is a look at Ingram's season on a game-by-game basis.

INGRAM IS EXPLOSIVE ... : Mark Ingram has burst onto the scene for the Crimson Tide as a sophomore in 2009. He ranks among the national leaders in runs of 10 yards or more (43), 15 yards or more (28) and 20 yards or more (17). With his nine receptions of 10 or more yards, he has a total of 52 plays of 10 or more yards this season. He ripped off an impressive eight runs and one reception of 10 or more yards against South Carolina, including five runs and one reception of 20 or more yards. He also had six runs and one reception of 10 yards or more vs. LSU's tough defense.

... AND TOUGH: Mark Ingram has also proven difficult to bring down on first contact. He has gained an astonishing 908 yards after contact this season on 249 touches (221 rushes, 28 receptions). Ingram has gained 54.2 percent of his total yards after contact this season (908 of 1,675). He reeled off a season-best 167 total yards after contact against South Carolina on 24 rushes and two receptions. He also broke the 100-yard barrier on yards after contact vs. Virginia Tech (115) and LSU (107) and got close at Mississippi (95). Below is a breakdown of Ingram's yards after contact (both rushing and receiving) this year.

INGRAM 2ND ON ALABAMA'S SINGLE-SEASON RUSHING LIST: Mark Ingram has 1,429 rushing yards this season to rank second on the Alabama single-season rushing list. He is just 43 yards from becoming the Capstone's leader in single-season rushing yards.

Alabama's 1,000-Yard Rushing Seasons

Yards	Player (Attempts)	Year
1,471	Bobby Humphrey (236 att.)	1986
1,429	Mark Ingram (221 att.)	2009
1,383	Shaun Alexander (302 att.)	1999
1,383	Glen Coffee (233 att.)	2008
1,367	Shaud Williams (280 att.)	2003

INGRAM'S PACE: Mark Ingram has already turned in a big season for the Crimson Tide. His 119.08 yards per game currently ranks 11th in the country and he is on pace to rush for 1,667 yards in a 14-game season (SEC Championship and bowl game). That number would shatter the school single-season mark of 1,471 by Bobby Humphrey in 1986 and rank as the sixth-most rushing yards in a single season in SEC history. It would only trail only Georgia's Herschel Walker (1,891 & 1,752), Arkansas' Darren McFadden (1,830), Auburn's Bo Jackson (1,786) and LSU's Charles Alexander (1,686). He would also do it in less carries - projected 258 - than any running back in the top 10.

BALL SECURITY: Mark Ingram has also developed an impressive reputation during his 26-game Alabama career as an expert at holding onto the football. The sophomore has lost only one fumble in 369 career rushing attempts and 35 career receptions for a total of 404 career touches. He has only put the ball on the ground twice (at LSU in 2008 and vs. Tennessee in 2009), the first of which was recovered by the Tide and the second was a lost fumble vs. Tennessee this season. Ingram went 332 carries into his career before losing his first fumble. He has 2,157 rushing yards in those 26 games with 24 rushing touchdowns while also catching 35 passes for 300 yards and three scores.

INGRAM RACKING UP RUSHING/RECEIVING YARDS: Mark Ingram is not only moving up on the Tide's single-season rushing chart (currently ranks second with 1,429 yards), but he is also among the UA greats in all-purpose yardage. Ingram enters the Florida game with 1,675 all-purpose yards (only rushing and receiving in his case), which ranks sixth on the Tide's single-season list. He is 121 yards out of third place and trails the Tide's single-season record-holder Bobby Humphrey (2,016 yards in 1986) by 341 yards with two games to play. Ingram is averaging 139.6 all-purpose yards per game this season.

TOP RUSHING EFFORT IN BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM: Mark Ingram constructed a career-best rushing performance with 246 yards on 24 attempts against South Carolina on Oct. 17 - the third-highest single-game rushing total in Alabama history and the most in the history of Bryant-Denny Stadium. Ingram's signature drive of the season also came against the Gamecocks, as he carried the ball on all six plays of the Tide final touchdown drive that sealed the game. Five of the plays came out of the 'Wildcat' formation with the runs covering 24, 4, 5, 9, 22 and 4 yards (TD). The yardage exceeded Ingram's 172-yard outing at Mississippi, his previous career high.

INGRAM SCORES ON CAREER-LONG RUN: Sophomore running back Mark Ingram's 70-yard touchdown run with 7:24 left in the fourth quarter sealed Alabama's win over Mississippi State. It also stands as the longest run of Ingram's Alabama career (previous long: 54 yards versus South Carolina on October 17, 2009).

MARK INGRAM BREAKDOWN: Below is a detailed breakdown of sophomore running back Mark Ingram's 2009 season as the sophomore continues to trend upward.

Ingram vs. SEC Teams: Ingram has rushed for 1,030 yards (171 attempts) in eight SEC games this season. He is averaging 128.75 yards per game in SEC play with seven rushing touchdowns. He has accounted for 71.6 percent of the team's rushing total in league play (1,030 of 1,439) and has scored seven of the team's nine rushing touchdowns. Ingram has five 100-yard games in SEC play this season against Kentucky, Mississippi, South Carolina, LSU and Mississippi State. He finished with a career-high 246 yards vs. No. 22 South Carolina and then busted loose on a career-long 70-yard touchdown run at Mississippi State on Nov. 14.

Ingram on the Road: In four games away from Bryant-Denny Stadium, vs. Virginia Tech (Atlanta), at Kentucky, Mississippi, Mississippi State and Auburn, Ingram is averaging 128.2 rushing yards per game this season. He has gained 641 yards in those contests on 116 and six touchdowns.

Ingram in September: Ingram averaged 86.8 rushing yards in four games in September in limited action. He missed the start and most of the second half of the Tide's win over Florida International with the flu. He then missed almost all of the second half and only received eight carries in a 53-7 blowout win over North Texas. Ingram also missed most of the fourth quarter against Arkansas after the Tide built a 35-7 lead.

Ingram in October: Ingram had a breakout month in October, averaging 164.2 rushing yards per game against four SEC opponents. He had 92 rushing attempts for 657 yards and four touchdowns for 7.1 yards per carry. Ingram tallied three 100-yard rushing games and had 99 yards in win over Tennessee while averaging 175.5 all-purpose yards per game.

Ingram in November: In four games in November, Ingram rushed 73 times for 424 yards and four touchdowns in wins over LSU, Mississippi State, Chattanooga and Auburn. He averaged 5.81 yards per carry and 106 yards per game in those four games. He ran for 144 yards in the Tide's SEC Western Division-clinching win over No. 9 LSU on Nov. 7 and added 149 rushing yards - with a 70-yard run - and two touchdowns at Mississippi State on Nov. 14. Ingram left the game with 9:43 remaining in the second quarter vs. Chattanooga with 102 yards and two touchdowns on just 11 rushes. He was held to a season-low 30 yards at Auburn on Nov. 27.

A BALANCED ATTACK: Alabama returned to the nation's elite in 2008 with a punishing ground attack that wore down defenses and took shots down the field. In 2009, the Tide has brought more balance to the table. UA still has an outstanding ground game and an aerial attack to match with quarterback Greg McElroy. The Tide has shown good balance in their offensive numbers, averaging 212.92 rushing yards and 194.5 yards passing per game, which gives UA the No. 40 total offense in the nation (407.42 ypg). On the ground, Alabama is rushing the ball an average of 41.42 times per game for 5.14 yards per rush. The passing game is averaging 26.33 pass attempts per contest for an average of 7.39 yards per attempt. Those numbers are leading to points on the scoreboard. UA averaged 30.1 points per game last season and is averaging 31.67 points per game in 2009 to rank 25th nationally.

McELROY ON THE MARK: Junior quarterback Greg McElroy has been impressive in his first season as the Crimson Tide's starting quarterback, completing 60.81 percent (180 of 296) of his passes for 2,211 yards and 16 touchdowns with only four interceptions. He boasts a 138.69 passing efficiency rating, which ranks 34th nationally and fourth in the SEC. He has won his last 28 starts at quarterback, going 16-0 as a high school senior in 2005 and 12-0 for the Tide in 2009. In his collegiate starting debut against Virginia Tech, the Southlake, Texas, native threw for 230 yards on 15-of-30 passing with one touchdown and one interception in leading the Crimson Tide to a win over the No. 7 team in the country. He also set a new Alabama record for consecutive completions against Florida International by connecting on 14 straight passes. Against North Texas, he tied the school mark for highest completion percentage with a minimum of 10 completions, going 13 for 15 (86.7 percent).

RICHARDSON HAS IMPRESSIVE ROOKIE CAMPAIGN: True freshman running back Trent Richardson has enjoyed an impressive rookie season. The Pensacola, Fla., native has rushed for 562 yards and six touchdowns in 115 attempts (4.89 yards per carry and 46.8 yards per game). Richardson has 14 receptions for 107 yards. He rushed for 118 yards and two touchdowns on 15 carries against Florida International in his second career game. He followed that up with 87 yards on 11 carries (7.9 ypc) against North Texas and 65 yards and a score vs. Arkansas. Richardson scored on runs of nine and 35 yards in the second half vs. FIU, plunged in from one yard out against North Texas and broke five tackles en route to a 52-yard touchdown vs. Arkansas.

MULTIPLE OPTIONS CREATE DIVERSE OFFENSIVE ATTACK: A key element of the Tide's high-powered offense in 2009 has been its ability to find playmakers all over the field. UA quarterbacks, led by starter Greg McElroy, have completed 60.8 percent of their passes to 17 different receivers in the first 12 games of the 2009 season. That includes the SEC opener against Arkansas where McElroy spread out 17 completions to nine different targets. The UA receiving numbers are headed by Julio Jones, who has 40 receptions for 545 yards, a 13.6 yards per catch average and four touchdowns. Running back Mark Ingram is second with 28 receptions for 246 yards and three scores. Receiver Marquis Maze is third with 25 catches for 423 yards and two touchdowns. Next is tight end Colin Peek with 23 grabs for 274 yards and two touchdowns. Receiver Darius Hanks has 17 catches for 272 yards and 3 TDs. In all, the Tide has 99 receptions from its wide receivers, 57 from backs, 37 from tight ends and one from safety Mark Barron on a fake punt.

DIVERSE SCORING: The Alabama offense has been able to score in a hurry while also showing the ability to grind out the long, time-consuming scoring drive. The Crimson Tide has scored 22 touchdowns in three minutes or less, including 12 that found the end zone in three or less plays. On the flip side, Alabama has grinded out 14 scoring drives (11 touchdowns & three field goals) that have included 10 or more plays and 5:00 of possession time. The Tide has logged six touchdowns that have consisted of at least 13 plays. Alabama has also pounded out nine drives of 80 yards or more, including three drives of 95 yards or more (99, 97 & 95). Alabama's 15-play, 79-yard, game-winning drive at Auburn is the most plays run in a drive this season.

TIME OF POSSESSION: An Alabama trademark over the past two seasons has been its ability to control the line of scrimmage offensively and, consequently, control the tempo of the game. This has created an impressive advantage in time of possession. A year ago the Crimson Tide finished 11th nationally with an average time of possession of 32:08. In 2009, the Crimson Tide is once again a leader in that category, ranking fifth nationally at 33:00. The Tide held the ball for 37:02 in the opener against Virginia Tech and then again against Chattanooga. UA had a season-best 38:19 of possession at Mississippi. UA also won possession time against Florida International (31:38), North Texas (30:43), Arkansas (33:36), Kentucky (33:30), LSU (32:52), Mississippi State (31:36) and Auburn (33:47). The Tide has won the time of possession battle in 19 of the last 26 games over the last two seasons, including 10-of-12 contests in 2009.

BAMA SCORES ON BIG PLAYS: On the year, the Alabama offense has 50 plays of 20 yards or more with 21 of those plays going for touchdowns. The Tide also has 20 plays of 35 yards or more with 13 of those going for scores.

ALABAMA'S 53 POINTS: Alabama's 53 points in its win over North Texas were the most during head coach Nick Saban's tenure at the Capstone. The previous high of 52 came on Sept. 1, 2007, against Western Carolina in his first game at Alabama. Additionally, the 53 points are the most scored by Alabama since beating Texas-El Paso, 56-7, on Oct. 6, 2001, at Legion Field in Birmingham. The 53 points are the most at Bryant-Denny Stadium since a 62-0 win over Tulane on Oct. 12, 1991.

100-YARD RUSHERS AND RECEIVERS: Alabama has had eight 100-yard rushers and two 100-yard receivers in its 12 games this season. Sophomore running back Mark Ingram has recorded at least 100 yards in five of his last seven games. He had 140 yards at Kentucky, 172 yards at Mississippi and then a career-best and Bryant-Denny Stadium record 246 yards against South Carolina. Ingram then went for 144 against No. 9 LSU, 149 and two scores at Mississippi State and 102 yards and two TDs against Chattanooga on just 11 carries. Under Saban, Alabama has had 18 100-yard rushing performances and the Tide has gone 17-1 in those 18 games. Four different players have rushed for 100 yards during the last three seasons. Under Saban, Alabama has had eight 100-yard receiving performances and the Tide has gone 7-1 in those games. The LSU game on Nov. 7 marked the fourth time under Saban that Alabama has had a 100-yard rusher and receiver in the same game.

30-PLUS: For the first time since 1979, and just the third time in school history, Alabama opened the season with five straight games in which the Crimson Tide scored 30 points or more. The Tide also accomplished the feat in 1920. It was just the seventh time in school history Alabama has had five consecutive games of 30 points or more scored with the most recent being the season-opening streak in 1979. The longest such streak is seven games, which came from Sept. 18-Oct. 30, 1971. The 1971 team also set the school record for most 30-point games in a season with nine. Alabama had seven (tied for third) in 2008 and has seven this season. In 2009, the Tide opened with 34 points against Virginia Tech, scored 40 vs. Florida International and rang up 53 against North Texas - the most points for a UA team since 2001. The Crimson Tide then put up 35 points in the SEC opener against Arkansas and followed that with 38 points on the road at Kentucky. Later, Alabama posted a 31-3 win at Mississippi State on Nov. 14.

CRIMSON TIDE SPECIAL TEAMS NOTES

ARENAS NEARING SEC & NCAA PUNT RETURN YARDAGE RECORD: Senior return specialist Javier Arenas is one of the best punt returners in college football history. He has already broken all of the Crimson Tide punt return records and has the SEC record for career punt return yards (1,725) and career punt returns for touchdowns (7). He now has his sights set on the NCAA record, needing 37 yards to become the NCAA leader in career punt return yards and is one touchdown shy of the NCAA mark. Arenas broke Lee Nalley's (Vanderbilt, 1947-49) long-standing SEC record of 1,695 yards (102 returns for a 14.4-yard average) with 67 yards on two punt returns vs. Auburn to give him 1,725 yards. Arenas set the SEC punt returns for touchdowns record (7) with a 66-yard return vs. Chattanooga. Nalley set that record and it stood for 54 years as the NCAA record until Texas Tech's Wes Welker broke it in 2003. Welker finished his Tech career with 1,761 punt return yards. Arenas is the NCAA active leader in career punt returns (121), yards (1,725), touchdowns (7), returns per game and yards per game (14.26).

ARENAS' CAREER PUNT RETURNS: BY THE NUMBERS

TIFFIN'S PRODUCTION AT ALL-TIME HIGH: Alabama senior place-kicker Leigh Tiffin is second nationally in field goals per game at 2.25. He has connected on 27-of-31 field goals this season (87.1 percent). His 27 field goals breaks his own school record (25 in 2007) and currently rank as the second most by any SEC kicker in a single season in history (Georgia's Billy Bennett, 31). Tiffin also broke his own single-season scoring record with 117 points, which ranks as the fifth-highest total in SEC history. He leads the SEC and ranks ninth nationally in scoring at 9.75 points per game. Tiffin has connected on 21 of his last 23 field goals and has made an impressive 18 field goals (out of 20) over the last seven games.

Kicking Points in a Season

Points	Player (FGs, PATs)	Year
117	Leigh Tiffin (27 FGs, 36 PATs)	2009
111	Leigh Tiffin (25 FGs, 36 PATs)	2007
106	Leigh Tiffin (20 FGs, 46 PATs)	2008
100	Philip Doyle (22 FGs, 34 PATs)	1989
97	Philip Doyle (24 FGs, 25 PATs)	1990
97	Michael Proctor (22 FGs, 31 PATs)	1993

TIFFIN BECOMES UA'S CAREER SCORING LEADER: Leigh Tiffin became Alabama's career scoring leader on Nov. 7 with 10 points vs. LSU, passing Philip Doyle (345). He now has 370 career points to rank third among kickers in SEC history. He is one point behind Tennessee's Jeff Hall (271) for second place. Georgia's Billy Bennett holds both the SEC and NCAA scoring record with 409 career points.

TIFFIN BREAKS UA'S CAREER FIELD GOALS MADE RECORD: Senior place-kicker Leigh Tiffin has broken the Alabama career field goals made record with 80 in his career at the Capstone. He converted 2-of-3 field goals at Auburn on Nov. 27 to pass Philip Doyle, who had 78 field goals from 1987-90. Tiffin has connected on multiple field goals in eight games this season. He has made 18-of-20 field goals during the last seven games and 12 of his last 13 attempts. He is also third on the SEC's career field goals made list, just seven behind Georgia's Billy Bennett (87), who is also the NCAA career leader.

ACCOLADES/WATCH LISTS/ HONORS

COLIN PEEK & BARRETT JONES NAMED ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICANS: Alabama tight end Colin Peek and right guard Barrett Jones have been named to the ESPN the Magazine Academic All-American Team, as selected by the College of Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) recently. Peek is the first Alabama player selected to the first team since Kenny King in 2002. Peek sports a 3.79 grade point average in finance and will graduate in December. He has played in 12 games in 2009 and has recorded 23 catches for 274 yards (11.9 per catch) and two touchdowns. Jones was named to the second team after compiling a 4.0 grade point average in management at the Capstone. He has started all 12 games for the Crimson Tide this season at right guard and is one of three first-year starters on an offensive line that is averaging 212.92 rushing yards per game to rank 13th nationally and ranks 20th nationally in fewest sacks allowed (1.17) per game.

SMART NOMINATED FOR BROYLES AWARD: Alabama defensive coordinator Kirby Smart is one of 34 coaches from across the nation that have been nominated for the 2009 Frank Broyles Award, which recognizes the outstanding work of assistant coaches. Smart has guided the nation's No. 3 total defense, allowing just 233.92 yards per game, and the No. 2 scoring defense, surrendering just 10.93 points per game this season. The Crimson Tide's defense also leads the nation in pass efficiency defense (85.88), while ranking second in rush defense (77.1 yards per game) and fifth in pass defense (156.8 ypg). The UA defense has surrendered only eight touchdowns in eight SEC games in 2009 and has held five SEC teams to single-digit point totals. Over the past seven games, UA has allowed only five touchdowns and 58 total points (8.29 ppg).

INGRAM PICKED AS DOAK WALKER & MAXWELL FINALIST: Alabama sophomore running back Mark Ingram has been selected as one of three finalists for the 2009 Doak Walker Award and the 2009 Maxwell Award. The Doak Walker Award goes to the nation's top running back, while the Maxwell Award is given to the best all-around player in college football. In 12 games this season, Ingram has 1,429 yards and 12 touchdowns on the ground. He ranks second in the SEC and 11th nationally with 119.1 rushing yards per game. Ingram has added 28 receptions for 246 yards and three touchdowns, giving him 15 total touchdowns and 1,675 all-purpose yards. He tied Shaun Alexander as the fastest player in school history to reach 1,000 yards, accomplishing the feat in just eight games.

MCCLAIN SELECTED AS BUTKUS FINALIST: Alabama junior linebacker Rolando McClain has been named as one of five finalists for the 2009 Dick Butkus Award, which is presented annually to the best linebacker in college football since 1985. McClain is joined by Sergio Kindle (Texas), Eric Norwood (South Carolina), Brandon Spikes (Florida) and Sean Weatherspoon (Missouri) as this year's finalists. McClain, Spikes and Weatherspoon were all finalists last year. McClain is the heart and soul of the Tide defense this season, anchoring a unit that leads the SEC and ranks second nationally in rushing defense, allowing 2.6 yards per play and 77.1 yards per game this season. He leads the team with 96 tackles and has 12.0 tackles for loss (-57 yards), four sacks (-36 yards), two interceptions (21 return yards), two pass breakups, 11 quarterback hurries and a forced fumble that led directly to a touchdown. The UA defense ranks second nationally in scoring defense (10.83 ppg) while ranking third nationally in total defense (233.92 ypg). Former Alabama All-American Derrick Thomas won the Butkus Award in 1988. This year's winner is to be announced on Dec. 8.

MCCLAIN NAMED A LOTT IMPACT TROPHY FINALIST: Crimson Tide junior linebacker Rolando McClain in one of four finalists for the 2009 Lott Impact Trophy the Pacific Club Impact Foundation. The award, which is named for NFL Hall of Famer Ronnie Lott, is presented to college football's defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. The award is presented to the player who best exhibits the same characteristics Lott embodied during his distinguished career: Integrity, Maturity, Performance, Academics, Community and Tenacity. The winning school will receive $25,000 for their general scholarship fund. Former Alabama linebacker and current Houston Texans standout DeMeco Ryans won the award in 2006. Alabama ranks in the top three nationally in almost every defensive category. The four finalists will be announced Nov. 24 and the winner will be announced Dec. 13 at the Lott Trophy Banquet in Newport Beach, Calif.

CODY SELECTED AS LOMBARDI FINALIST: Alabama nose guard Terrence Cody is one of four finalists for the 40th Rotary Lombardi Award, which goes to the nation's top interior lineman or linebacker. Cody joins TCU defensive end Jerry Hughes, Oklahoma defensive end Gerald McCoy and Nebraska defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh as this year's finalists. Cody is the seventh Tide player to be named a finalist for the Lombardi Award and the second in a row, after Andre Smith in 2008. Former All-American linebacker Cornelius Bennett is the only UA player to win the Lombardi Award, capturing the honor in 1986. Cody has anchored an Alabama defensive front that has held opponents to 77.1 rushing yards per game, a figure that ranks second nationally. He has recorded 24 tackles, including five tackles for loss (-20 yards), while constantly going against double-teams. He has also added two blocked kicks, two quarterback pressures and one pass breakup.

CODY NAMED NAGURSKI FINALIST: Senior nose guard Terrence Cody has been selected as one of five finalists for the 2009 Bronko Nagurski Trophy by the Football Writers Association and the Charlotte (N.C.) Touchdown Club. Cody is joined by Iowa linebacker Pat Angerer, Tennessee strong safety Eric Berry, TCU defensive end Jerry Hughes and Nebraska defensive tackle Ndamukong Suh as the five finalists vying for one of the FWA's highest honors, its National Defensive Player of the Year award. The winner will be announced on Dec. 7 in Charlotte, N.C.

CODY NAMED FINALIST FOR BEDNARIK AWARD: Terrence Cody was among the three finalists for the Chuck Bednarik Award, given to the best defensive player in college football. Cody joins Ndamukong Suh (Nebraska) and Brandon Spikes (Florida) as finalists. The winner will be announced on Dec. 10 at the ESPN/Home Depot College Football Awards Show in Orlando, Fla.

TIFFIN NAMED FINALIST FOR LOU GROZA AWARD: Alabama senior place-kicker Leigh Tiffin has been selected as one of three finalists for the 2009 Lou Groza Award, which is given to the nation's best place-kicker. Tiffin is joined by UCLA's Kai Forbath and Georgia's Blair Walsh. Tiffin is first nationally with 27 field goals while ranking ninth in scoring at 9.75 points per game. Both of those numbers lead the SEC. He has connected on 87.1 percent of his field goals this season (27-of-31). He has 117 points, which leads all Groza finalists and is the highest total in a single season in school history. The winner will be announced on Dec. 10 at the ESPN/Home Depot College Football Awards Show in Orlando, Fla.

UA COACHES PLAYERS OF THE WEEK: The Alabama coaching staff recognized eight players of the week following a 26-21 win over Auburn. Julio Jones and Colin Peek were selected for their efforts on the offensive side of the football while Rolando McClain, Javier Arenas and Eryk Anders earned defensive accolades. Arenas also joined punter P.J. Fitzgerald and Ali Sharrief as special teams players of the week.

Jones caught a career-high nine passes for 83 yards, including four passes on the Tide's game-winning drive late in the third quarter, three of which resulted in first downs. Peek caught three passes for 53 yards, including a 33-yard strike in the second quarter for a touchdown.

Defensively, McClain led Alabama with 12 tackles while recording one sack and 1.5 tackles for loss. McClain's sack came on a third down late in the fourth quarter that set up the Tide's game-winning drive. Anders had seven tackles, three quarterback hurries and a team-best 3.5 tackles for loss (-16 yards). On his sack, he also forced Auburn's Chris Todd to fumble and then scrambled to recover the fumble.

Arenas returned two punts for 67 yards with a long of 56 and also returned his only kickoff 46 yards to set up an Alabama score. In the process, he broke the SEC punt returns yardage record. Fitzgerald punted five times and averaged 45.2 yards per kick. He booted a season-long 55-yarder and placed two kicks inside the 20-yard line. Sharrief was honored for his excellent play on return and coverage teams.

INGRAM/CODY RECEIVE AT&T PLAYER OF THE WEEK HONORS: In back-to-back weeks (South Carolina and Tennessee), Alabama players won the AT&T All-America Player of the Week Award. The AT&T All-America Player of the Week is the only player of the week award voted on solely by the fans. Ingram rushed for a Bryant-Denny Stadium record 246 yards and a touchdown against South Carolina and Cody followed that with two blocked field goals in the fourth quarter against Tennessee to preserve the win. The second blocked field goal came with four seconds remaining and clinched a 12-10 Crimson Tide win.

MORE SEC HONORS: Javier Arenas is the latest Alabama player to receive SEC Player of the Week honors, earning special teams honors following the Chattanooga game, where he set the SEC record with his seventh career punt return for a touchdown. Mike Johnson was the offensive lineman of the week after the Tide's 252 yards rushing and no sacks allowed at Mississippi State. Arenas was honored following the LSU win as the defensive player of the week, making seven total tackles (four solos), with two for losses (-8 yards) and a quarterback pressure. Seniors Leigh Tiffin and Terrence Cody were honored by the SEC following the Tennessee game. Tiffin was selected as the SEC Special Teams Player of the Week after successfully converting all four field goal attempts and accounting for all 12 points in the win over Tennessee. Tiffin made kicks of 38, 50, 22 and 49 yards. Tiffin has made 11 field goals in the last three games against Mississippi (5-for-5), South Carolina (2-for-3) and Tennessee (4-for-4). Cody was named the SEC Defensive Lineman of the Week after his two blocked field attempts, including one of the game's final play that secured the Crimson Tide's 12-10 victory over the Vols. Cody blocked Daniel Lincoln's 44-yard field goal attempt on the game's final play as the Tide improved to 8-0 this season. Cody also blocked a 43-yard field goal attempt earlier in the fourth quarter, tying the Alabama single-game record for blocked kicks in a game. He was also credited with two tackles in the win.

For the season, Alabama has seen eight players earn 10 SEC Player of the Week honors. Mark Ingram has received offensive player of the week honors twice, following the Virginia Tech and South Carolina games while fellow running back Trent Richardson was recognized as the freshman of the week following the FIU and Arkansas games. Rolando McClain was honored after the Kentucky game when he made 12 tackles, forced a fumble that was returned for a touchdown and intercepted a pass. Junior center William Vlachos was named the SEC Offensive Lineman of the Week following the Tide's win at Mississippi.

JAVIER ARENAS TABBED AS SEMIFINALIST FOR THORPE AWARD: Alabama senior cornerback Javier Arenas was named one of 12 semifinalists for the Jim Thorpe Award. Arenas is one of three SEC players among the semifinalists. The finalists will be announced Nov. 23 and the winner will be named at the Home Depot College Football Awards Show on Dec. 10 in Orlando, Fla.

McCLAIN EARNS NATIONAL HONOR: Alabama linebacker Rolando McClain was named the FWAA/Bronko Nagurski National Defensive Player of the Week after his performance against Kentucky. McClain, a 6-4, 258-pound junior from Decatur, Ala., registered a game- and season-high 12 tackles (eight unassisted) made his first interception of the 2009 season, forced a fumble that was returned for a touchdown, notched a quarterback hurry and recorded a pass deflection in Alabama's 38-20 victory. McClain's forced fumble led to a 45-yard touchdown return that gave the Crimson Tide a 21-6 halftime lead. Then, his 21-yard interception return on the first possession of the third quarter set up another Alabama touchdown. His third-quarter pass deflection resulted in an interception that led to a field goal.

SPORTING NEWS' MIDEASON ALL-AMERICANS: Four Alabama players were among 26 players listed on the Sporting News midseason All-America team. The Tide defense featured standout linebacker Rolando McClain along with nose guard Terrence Cody. Running back Mark Ingram and left guard Mike Johnson were tabbed on offense.

McCLAIN LOTT IMPACT POW: Junior linebacker Rolando McClain was selected as the Lott Trophy's IMPACT Player of the Week following the Tide's 20-6 win over No. 22 South Carolina. The Decatur, Ala., native had seven tackles, two quarterback pressures, one tackle for loss (-2 yards) and one pass breakup in the Crimson Tide's win over the Gamecocks.

PEEK ON MACKAY WATCH LIST: Alabama senior tight end Colin Peek was one of 22 players named to the 2009 John Mackey Award Watch List announced by the Nassau County Sports Commission. The Mackey Award is given annually to best collegiate tight end and the winner will be announced on Dec. 10. Peek has started 11 games and played in 12 for the top Crimson Tide and has caught 23 passes for 274 yards (11.9 per catch) and two touchdowns this season. Peek's blocking skills have paved the way for running back Mark Ingram's 119.1 rushing yards per game this season and 12 touchdowns. In addition, the Crimson Tide offense churns out 212.92 rushing yards per game to rank 13th nationally and second in the SEC.

STAR OF THE WEEK: Senior place-kicker Leigh Tiffin has become accustomed to being named the Lou Groza Award "Star of the Week." He was selected for the award for the third time this season after nailing four field goals and accounting for all of Alabama's points in a 12-10 win over Tennessee. He connected on kicks of 38, 50, 22 and 49 yards in the win. He was also named the Lou Groza Award "Star of the Week" for his efforts in the Crimson Tide's 22-3 win at Mississippi on Oct. 10, when he kicked a career-best five field goals in the win. His first "Star of the Week" recognition this season came at Virginia Tech where he connected on 4-of-5 field goals and two extra points. Tiffin was also named a Lou Groza Award "Star of the Week" twice in 2008.

FRESHMAN ACADEMICS: Alabama's heralded 2008 freshman class did more than just excel on the football field, the Crimson Tide placed 12 rookies on the 2009 SEC Freshman Academic Honor Roll, by far the highest total in the SEC with Georgia coming in second with seven honorees. Honorees were Undra Billingsley, John Michael Boswell, Jerrell Harris, Mark Ingram, Barrett Jones, Chris Jordan, Tyler Love, Wesley Neighbors, Brad Smelley, Corey Smith, Damion Square and Michael Williams. Each student-athlete must have a cumulative GPA of 3.00 or above and be on scholarship or a letter winner. They also must completed 24 semester hours of non-remedial credit at the nominating institution and have been a member of the varsity team for the sport's entire NCAA Championship segment.

CRIMSON TIDE TEAM NOTES

PERFECT RECORD: Alabama ran the table in the 2009 regular season and finished the season with a perfect 8-0 record in SEC play. Since the league split into a divisional format in 1992, nine SEC teams have navigated their way through the conference with a perfect 8-0 mark. Alabama has done it four times (1992, 1994, 2008 and 2009) while Florida has run the table three times (1995, 1996 and 2009). Tennessee went 8-0 in 1998 and Auburn was 8-0 in 2004.

Undeclared SEC Teams Since 1992

1992	Alabama	8-0
1994	Alabama	8-0
1995	Florida	8-0
1996	Florida	8-0
1998	Tennessee	8-0
2004	Auburn	8-0
2008	Alabama	8-0
2009	Alabama & Florida	8-0

BACK-TO-BACK 8-0 MARKS: With its win over Auburn, Alabama has completed back-to-back perfect seasons in SEC play. With 8-0 records in each of the last two seasons, the Crimson Tide joins the 1995-96 Florida Gators as the only two SEC teams to post consecutive 8-0 seasons since the league expanded to 12 teams in 1992.

16-GAME SEC WINNING STREAK: Alabama's win over Auburn extends the Crimson Tide's conference regular-season winning streak to 16 games after successive 8-0 seasons in 2008 and 2009. Alabama's last loss in an SEC regular season game came in a 17-10 loss at Auburn on Nov. 24, 2007. The current 16-game regular-season SEC winning streak is the longest by an Alabama team since the Tide reeled off 17 straight SEC wins from 1991-93, which included an 8-0 season in 1992. The current 16-game winning streak is the fourth-longest streak in school history. The Tide won an SEC record 27 straight SEC games from 1976-80 and added a 20-game winning streak from 1973-75.

UA TIES RECORD FOR REGULAR SEASON WINS: The Crimson Tide's 12 regular season wins tied an Alabama record for most victories in the regular season. The Tide also won 12 regular season games last year to set the single-season mark for regular season wins. The previous record was 11 regular season wins set in six times, most recently in 1994. The 2009 squad is the eighth Alabama team to win at least 11 regular season games and the first since 1994. The other UA teams to win at least 11 regular season games are 1971 (11-0), 1973 (11-0), 1974 (11-0), 1979 (11-0), 1992 (11-0) and 1994 (11-0). A total of 13 Alabama teams have won 10 regular season games, most recently in 2002 (10-3).

Most Regular Season Wins

11	1994 (11-0); 1992 (11-0); 1979 (11-0); 1974 (11-0); 1973 (11-0); 1971 (11-0)

12 WINS ARE SECOND MOST IN A SEASON IN ALABAMA HISTORY: With its current 12-0 record, Alabama is currently tied for second place in school history for most wins in a single-season. The 1992 team won a school record 13 games en route to the school's 12th national title. The 2009 squad is the fourth in school history to win 12 games, joining the 1979, 1994 and 2008 squads.

Most Wins (All Games)

12	2009 (12-0); 2008 (12-0); 1994 (12-1); 1979 (12-0)

TIDE TRIO TIES GAMES PLAYED RECORD: A trio of Crimson Tide seniors – punter P.J. Fitzgerald, left guard Mike Johnson and defensive back Ali Sharrief – played their 52nd career game in the win at Auburn, tying the school record for most career games played. The trio joins Travis McCall (2005-08), Nick Walker (2005-08) and Tarrant Lynch (1990-94) as the only players in school history to see action in 52 games. Senior cornerback and kick return specialist Javier Arenas played his 50th career game at Auburn.

FOURTH QUARTER DOMINANCE: Finishing has been a focus for Alabama over the past two seasons as the Tide has ascended into the nation's elite. And no one in the SEC has been better in the fourth quarter in 2009 than the 12-0 Crimson Tide. Alabama has outscored its opponents 102-24 in the fourth quarter, a margin of 78 points. That number grows to 175-62 in the third and fourth quarters for a margin of 113 points.

10-WIN SEASONS: Alabama's 12-0 record in 2009 gives the Crimson Tide its 30th 10-win season in 115 seasons of football. Alabama's 30 10-win seasons ranks second in college football history behind Oklahoma, which has reached the 10-win plateau 31 times. It is the fourth time this decade in which Alabama has had 10 wins in a season (2002, 2005, 2008 and 2009). Alabama head coach Nick Saban is the 11th coach in school history to lead his team to a 10-win season. In addition, Saban is the fifth coach in school history to have more than one 10-win season. Saban led the Crimson Tide to a 12-2 record last season.

TIDES HAS 10-GAME STREAK FOR 22nd TIME IN HISTORY: Alabama's 12-game winning streak gives them a winning streak of 10 games or more for the 22nd time in school history, an NCAA record. The last time UA owned a 10-game winning streak came during the 2007-08 seasons when UA reeled off 13 consecutive wins. That streak began with a 30-24 win over Colorado in the 2007 Independence Bowl and continued through the 2008 regular season, ending with a loss to Florida in the SEC Championship Game.

ALABAMA 2ND NATIONALLY IN WINS OVER LAST TWO YEARS: Alabama has won 24 games over the past two seasons, which is tied for the second most in the Football Bowl Subdivision and tied for the most in school history. The Crimson Tide won 12 games a season ago and has followed that with a perfect 12-0 record in 2009. Florida leads the nation with 25 wins over the past two years, while Boise State and Texas join Alabama with 24 victories. The only other time UA won 24 games combined in back-to-back seasons was 1991 (11 wins) and 1992 (13 wins).

TOTAL WINS (2008-2009)

Team	Total wins	2008/2009
Florida	25	13/12
Alabama	24	12/12
Texas	24	12/12
Boise State	24	12/12
TCU	23	11/12
Cincinnati	22	11/11
Penn State	21	11/10
Utah	21	12/9

FIRST CONSECUTIVE 11-0 STARTS SINCE 1973-74: The victory over Auburn moved Alabama to 12-0 for the season. Along with a 12-0 start in 2008, it marks the first time in school history that Alabama has constructed 12-0 regular seasons. It is the first back-to-back undefeated regular seasons since the 1973 and 1974 when Alabama posted 11-0 starts in consecutive years. Alabama, which finished 12-2 in 2008, finished 11-1 in both 1973 and 1974 as the Crimson Tide won 11 straight games prior to losing bowl games in those seasons – the Sugar Bowl vs. Notre Dame (24-23 in 1973) and the Orange Bowl vs. Notre Dame (13-11 in 1974).

FIVE STRAIGHT IN THE SEC: Alabama recently won five straight Southeastern Conference games without a bye for just the second time this decade. Alabama also won five straight SEC games without a bye in 2002. What makes this feat more impressive is that the Crimson Tide is the only SEC team this decade to do it twice. In 2002, UA rolled off five straight wins without a bye week against Mississippi, Tennessee, Vanderbilt, Mississippi and LSU. In 2009, the Tide beat Arkansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, South Carolina and Tennessee. Only Florida, which defeated six SEC opponents in successive weeks earlier this season, has eclipsed that feat.

ALABAMA 27-1 UNDER SABAN WHEN LEADING AT THE HALF: The Crimson Tide is 27-1 when leading at halftime under head coach Nick Saban, including a 20-game winning streak. The only loss came against LSU in 2007 when UA held a 20-17 half-time lead before losing, 41-34, on Nov. 3, 2007, at Bryant-Denny Stadium. The Crimson Tide is 2-5 under Saban when trailing at halftime and 2-2 when tied at halftime. The two wins when trailing at the half came in a 34-24 win over No. 7 Virginia Tech on Sept. 5 in Atlanta and a 24-15 victory over No. 9 LSU on Nov. 7. Alabama's two wins when tied at halftime came last year at LSU, a 27-21 victory over Nov. 8, 2008, and a 26-21 win at Auburn on Nov. 27, 2009.

BEST COACHING STARTS: Nick Saban has compiled a 31-8 (.795) record in his career with the Tide and the 31 wins rank as the fourth-most for any Crimson Tide head football coach after 39 games. Wallace Wade and Frank Thomas hold the record for most wins after 39 games with 34 victories while Gene Stallings is third with 33. Xen Scott is fifth with 27 and Paul "Bear" Bryant is sixth with 26 wins at this point in their careers. Below are the most wins by UA coaches after the first 39 and 40 career games.

Most Wins (After 39 Games)

Wallace Wade	34
Frank Thomas	34
Gene Stallings	33
Nick Saban	31
Xen Scott	27
Paul "Bear" Bryant	27

Most Wins (After 40 Games)

Wallace Wade	35
Frank Thomas	34
Gene Stallings	34
Xen Scott	28
Paul "Bear" Bryant	28

TIDE CAPTURES 800TH WIN: The storied Alabama football program captured the program's 800th win on Sept. 5 in Atlanta with a 34-24 win over No. 7 Virginia Tech. Alabama is the seventh school in the Football Bowl Subdivision to reach the 800-win plateau. The Crimson Tide holds an 811-316-43 all-time record for a .712 winning percentage that ranks sixth in FBS history. The other six programs to record 800 wins: Michigan (877); Texas (843); Notre Dame (837); Nebraska (825); Ohio State (817); Penn State (809).

19 NATIONAL TV GAMES IN LAST TWO YEARS: The SEC Championship Game against Florida, which will be broadcast on CBS, will be the Crimson Tide's 19th national television game since the start of the 2008 season. UA opened this season with a national ABC broadcast against Virginia Tech and CBS then broadcast the Arkansas, Mississippi, Tennessee, LSU and Auburn games. ESPN broadcast the Tide's win over South Carolina in Bryant-Denny Stadium and UA's win at Mississippi State. In 2008, Alabama had 10 of its 14 games broadcast nationally, including five games on CBS, three games on ESPN, one on ABC and one on FOX. The 10 nationally broadcast games last year were tied with Notre Dame for the most in the nation.

FIRST-TIME STARTERS: Sixteen Alabama players (10 on offense, 6 on defense) have made their first career starts for the Crimson Tide this season. On defense, senior linebacker Eryk Anders, sophomore defensive back Mark Barron and sophomore defensive lineman Marcell Dareus were first-time starters against Virginia Tech before sophomore free safety Robby Green made his first career start as the Tide employed five defensive backs on the first play of scrimmage against FIU and Courtney Upshaw got his first start at Kentucky. True freshman Nico Johnson made his first start at will linebacker against South Carolina. On offense, junior left tackle James Carpenter, sophomore center William Vlachos, sophomore right guard Barrett Jones, senior tight end Colin Peek, sophomore tight end/H-back Brad Smelley and junior quarterback Greg McElroy made their first starts against Tech. Against FIU, senior running back Roy Upchurch made his first start for the Crimson Tide. Darius Hanks started his first game vs. North Texas and tight end Michael Williams got his first start vs. LSU.

NFL DRAFT: The Crimson Tide saw four players selected in the 2009 NFL Draft, including first-round pick Andre Smith, who went to the Cincinnati Bengals with the No. 6 overall pick. Glen Coffee (San Francisco), Antoine Caldwell (Houston) and Rashad Johnson (Arizona) all went off the board in the third round. The four picks were the most for the Tide since five players were taken in 2005.

RETURNING SUCCESS: Much of the talk in the preseason was about Alabama's vaunted defense, and the defensive side of the football is where the Crimson Tide returned the biggest portion of its players from last year's Sugar Bowl team. UA features 15 total returning starters and 55 lettermen this season, but eight of those returning starters are on the defensive side of the football with four on offense and both specialists. The Tide returned 90 percent of its lettermen on defense and 73 percent on offense. The defense returns 84 percent of the tackles (728 of 866) from 2008. The special teams returned almost completely intact with place-kicker Leigh Tiffin, punter P.J. Fitzgerald, snapper Brian Selman and return specialist Javier Arenas.

PRESEASON ALL-AMERICANS: The Crimson Tide had five players earn preseason first-team All-America honors prior to the 2009 campaign. Javier Arenas, Terrence

Cody, Mike Johnson, Julio Jones and Rolando McClain have garnered at least one first-team designation. McClain leads the way with six first-team honors.

ALABAMA'S TV RECORD: Alabama has compiled a 188-115-5 (.619) all-time record in 308 televised games. This does not include pay-per-view, tape-delayed or closed circuit telecasts. The Crimson Tide owns a 163-96-3 (.628) record in 262 regular-season televised games.

OVERTIME RECORD: Alabama is 4-7 (.364) all-time in overtime games. In its last overtime game, the Crimson Tide defeated LSU, 27-21, at Tiger Stadium on Nov. 8, 2008. Alabama has lost six of its last nine overtime games. The Crimson Tide is 4-6 (.400) in overtime games against SEC teams. Alabama is 2-4 (.333) in overtime home games. The Crimson Tide is 3-4 (.429) in single-overtime games.

NICK'S KIDS: At Michigan State, head coach Nick Saban and his wife Terry started the "Nick's Kids" Foundation, which the Sabans have continued in Tuscaloosa. Since their arrival at the University of Alabama, the Sabans have helped raise over $1 million - including over $300,000 this year - for "Nick's Kids" and made a total of more than 160 donations to children's charities throughout the state of Alabama.

STADIUM RENOVATION: The latest expansion project for Bryant-Denny Stadium will increase seating capacity to approximately 101,000, keeping it among the largest on-campus football stadiums in the nation. The expansion, expected to be completed for the beginning of the 2010 season, will be the fourth expansion of the stadium since 1988 and the seventh expansion in its history. This renovation will mirror the north end zone project completed in 2006 and will add roughly 8,500 seats, 1,700 South Zone Club seats, two corner video boards, an upper concourse with concessions and restrooms, 36 skyboxes, offices, a Donors Hall of Fame and an outdoor market for food and merchandise.

CRIMSON TIDE PLAYERS ON NFL ROSTERS: The Alabama football program was well represented throughout the NFL with the opening of the 2009 season with former players and coaches dotting league rosters. The Tide has 36 former players and coaches working in the NFL this season. The Crimson Tide is also represented on 17 of the league's 30 teams. Four former Alabama players and coaches are with the defending Super Bowl Champion Pittsburgh Steelers, including defensive back DeShea Townsend and assistant coaches John Mitchell (assistant head coach/DL), Bruce Arians (offensive coordinator/QBs) and Amos Jones (special teams). The Crimson Tide has 21 current NFL players, including 18 on active rosters and two more on practice squads or injured reserve. There are 13 former UA players and/or coaches serving as assistant coaches in the NFL this season, including Sylvester Croom (St. Louis), Freddie Kitchens (Arizona) and Richard Williamson (Carolina).

A-DAY SUCCESS: Alabama has led the SEC in spring football game attendance each of the last three seasons, averaging 84,769 fans for Coach Nick Saban's three A-Day football games at Bryant-Denny Stadium. Alabama dew a then-NCAA record 92,138 fans for Saban's first spring football game on April 21, 2007. In 2008, Alabama led the SEC again with 78,200 fans for it's A-Day game on April 12. The Tide again set the pace in the SEC with 84,050 fans on April 17, 2009.

CRIMSON TIDE OPPONENT NOTES

ALABAMA-FLORIDA SERIES: Alabama holds a 21-14 series lead over Florida in a series that dates back in the Alabama record books to the 1904 season. Florida does not recognize the 1904 game, claiming their team was a "club" team that season. The Crimson Tide and Gators will be meeting for the 36th time in the 2009 SEC Championship Game. Alabama and Florida will be meeting for the seventh time in the SEC Championship game and the Gators hold a 4-2 lead in the previous six meetings. Alabama earned SEC Championships with wins over Florida in 1992 and 1999. Florida beat Alabama in 1993, 1994, 1996 and 2008 for the SEC Championship. Prior to last year's SEC Championship Game meeting, the Crimson Tide and Gators have not played since the 2006 season when Florida posted a 28-13 win at Ben Hill Griffin Stadium in Gainesville. Alabama won the first meeting 29-0 during the 1904 season. Florida's first series win was a 9-2 victory in Tuscaloosa in 1921.

SERIES RECORDS BY SITES: Alabama and Florida have met at six different sites since the first meeting in 1904. The Crimson Tide owns a 10-2 lead in games played in the state of Florida, including an 8-2 mark in Gainesville. Florida's only wins against Alabama in Gainesville came in 1991 (35-0) and 2006 (28-13). Alabama and Florida have played 19 times in the state of Alabama, with the Tide holding a narrow 10-9 lead. The Tide holds a slim 6-5 series lead in Tuscaloosa. UF has won three of the five meetings played at Legion Field in Birmingham. Alabama won two of the three games contested in Montgomery. Florida has won three of the four SEC Championship games played in Atlanta.

UA PLAYERS FROM SUNSHINE STATE: The 2009 Alabama roster contains 12 players from the state of Florida. The list includes Javier Arenas (Tampa), Terrance Cody (Fort Myers), P.J. Fitzgerald (Coral Springs), Star Jackson (Lake Worth), Marquis Johnson (Sarasota), Mike Johnson (Pensacola), Colin Peek (Jacksonville), Trent Richardson (Pensacola), Chris Rogers (Lakeland), Ed Stinson (Lakeland), Roy Upchurch (Tallahassee) and Nick Williams (Fort Lauderdale).

SABAN VERSUS FLORIDA: Alabama head coach Nick Saban has a 2-4 record in his career against Florida, with five of the six meetings coming while he was the head coach at LSU. He compiled a 2-1 record against the Gators in Gainesville and a 0-2 record in Baton Rouge.

CRIMSON TIDE SEC TITLE GAME NOTES

ALABAMA SEEKS 22ND SEC CHAMPIONSHIP: Alabama seeks its SEC-leading 22nd conference football championship when the Crimson Tide meets Florida in the 2009 SEC Championship Game. The Crimson Tide has more SEC Championships than any other school but is seeking its first league title since 1999. Alabama won the first SEC Championship during the 1933 season as coach Frank Thomas led the Crimson Tide to 5-0-1 conference record. Thomas led Alabama to four SEC Championships. Paul Bryant directed the Crimson Tide to six national championships and 13 SEC titles during his 25-year run in Tuscaloosa. Alabama won five straight SEC Championships from 1971-75 and captured eight of the 10 SEC Championships from 1970-79. In addition to Thomas and Bryant, Alabama has had four other coaches win SEC Championships, including Harold "Red" Drew (1953), Bill Curry (1989), Gene Stallings (1992) and Mike DuBose (1999). In addition to its 21 SEC Championships, Alabama has also won four Southern Conference titles (1924, 1925, 1926 and 1930), giving the school 25 conference football championships.

ALABAMA MAKES 7TH SEC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME APPEARANCE: Alabama will be playing in its seventh SEC Championship Game as the 2009 SEC Western Division champion. The Crimson Tide won the SEC Western Division title with a perfect 8-0 league record. Alabama also won the 2008 SEC Western Division championship with a perfect 8-0 record. Alabama won SEC Western Division Championships in 1992, 1993, 1994, 1996 and 1999. Florida has been Alabama's opponent in all five of the Tide's previous SEC Championship Game appearances. In 1992, Alabama defeated Florida, 28-21, in the inaugural SEC Championship Game at Birmingham's Legion Field. Alabama lost to Florida in 1993, 1994, 1996 and 2008 with the last three games played in the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. In 1999, Alabama earned a 34-7 win over the Gators.

Alabama's SEC Championship Game Appearances

Date	Result of Game	Site
Dec. 5, 1992	Alabama 28, Florida 21	Legion Field (Birmingham)
Dec. 4, 1993	Florida 28, Alabama 13	Legion Field (Birmingham)
Dec. 3, 1994	Florida 24, Alabama 23	Georgia Dome (Atlanta)
Dec. 7, 1996	Florida 45, Alabama 30	Georgia Dome (Atlanta)
Dec. 4, 1999	Alabama 34, Florida 7	Georgia Dome (Atlanta)
Dec. 6, 2008	Florida 31, Alabama 20	Georgia Dome (Atlanta)

ALABAMA LEADS SEC WEST IN CHAMPIONSHIP GAME APPEARANCES: With its seventh SEC Championship Game appearance, Alabama has played in more title games than any Western Division team. LSU is second with four appearances, followed by Arkansas and Auburn with three and Mississippi State with one. Alabama's seven appearances rank second to Florida, which is making its 10th appearance at this year's game. Alabama and Florida have accounted for 17 of the 38 championship game appearances. Tennessee ranks third in appearances with five. Georgia has three appearances and is the only other SEC Eastern Division school to play in the game.

All-Time Championship Game Appearances

Florida	10 - 1992, 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996, 1999, 2000, 2006, 2008, 2009
Alabama	7 - 1992, 1993, 1994, 1996, 1999, 2008, 2009
Tennessee	5 - 1997, 1998, 2001, 2004, 2007
LSU	4 - 2001, 2003, 2005, 2007
Arkansas	3 - 1995, 2002, 2006

Georgia	3 - 2002, 2003, 2005
Mississippi State	1 - 1998

SABAN HAS BROUGHT TWO TEAMS TO ATLANTA: Alabama head coach Nick Saban is the only coach in SEC history to bring two teams to the SEC Championship Game. In addition to his appearances with Alabama the last two seasons, Saban brought LSU in 2001 and 2003. He is 2-1 in SEC Championship Games, leading LSU to wins over Tennessee, 31-20, in 2001, and Georgia, 34-13, in 2003. Saban is the third Alabama coach to lead the Crimson Tide into the SEC Championship Game, joining Gene Stallings (1992, 1993, 1994 and 1996) and Mike DuBose (1999). Florida (Steve Spurrier and Urban Meyer) and LSU (Saban and Les Miles) are the only other schools to have more than one coach win the SEC Championship Game.

SABAN LOOKS TO JOIN ELITE COMPANY: Alabama head coach Nick Saban looks to join Paul "Bear" Bryant as the only coaches in history to win an SEC Championship at two different schools. Bryant won 14 SEC championships during his 33-year SEC career, first at Kentucky (1946-53) in 1951 before winning 13 at Alabama (1958-82). Saban has two SEC Championships, leading LSU to the league title in 2001 and 2003. He is one of 12 coaches in SEC history to work at two different SEC schools, joining Mississippi's Houston Nutt and South Carolina's Steve Spurrier as the active SEC coaches on that list.

Coaches Who Have Been Head Coaches At Two SEC Schools

Paul Bryant	Kentucky and Alabama
Bill Curry	Alabama and Kentucky
Doug Dickey	Florida and Tennessee
*Paul Dietzel	South Carolina and LSU
Gerry DiNardo	Vanderbilt and LSU
Red Drew	Mississippi and Alabama
*Dudy Noble	Mississippi State and Mississippi
Houston Nutt	Arkansas and Mississippi
Nick Saban	LSU and Alabama
Steve Sloan	Vanderbilt and Mississippi
Steve Spurrier	Florida and South Carolina
Tommy Tuberville	Mississippi and Auburn

*Dietzel worked at both South Carolina and LSU prior to South Carolina joining the SEC in 1992.

*Noble was the head coach at both Mississippi State and Mississippi prior to the formation of the SEC.

NO. 1 VERSUS NO. 2 MATCHUPS: The 2008 SEC Championship Game will mark the 41st time since the inception of the Associated Press football poll in 1936 that the No. 1 and No. 2 ranked teams have met. Florida is ranked No. 1 in the latest AP poll, while Alabama is ranked No. 2. It is the second straight No. 1 vs. No. 2 matchup in SEC Championship Game. Last year, Alabama was the No. 1 team entering the SEC Championship, while Florida was ranked No. 2. The top two teams have met 22 times during the regular season and 18 times in conference championship game or bowl games. The No. 1 ranked team owns a 24-15-1 all-time record in these matchups. Alabama is playing in its fifth No. 1 vs. No. 2 matchup. Alabama is 2-2 in its previous four games matching No. 1 vs. No. 2 with wins over Penn State (1979 Sugar Bowl) and Miami (1993 Sugar Bowl) and losses to Nebraska (1972 Orange Bowl) and Florida (2008 SEC Championship Game).

NO. 1 VERSUS NO. 2 SAME CONFERENCE: The 2009 SEC Championship Game marks the seventh time that teams from the same conference have played each other when ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the AP poll. This is the second straight year that No. 1 and No. 2 have met in the SEC Championship Game. Prior to that, the last time it occurred was Nov. 18, 2006, when No. 1 Ohio State defeated No. 2 Michigan 42-39 in Columbus, Ohio. The top-ranked team is 4-2 in the previous six No. 1 vs. No. 2 matchups. The Alabama-Florida game is just the second time in SEC history that teams have played one another when ranked No. 1 and No. 2 in the AP poll.

TWO GAMES, SAME STADIUM: The 2009 SEC Championship Game will mark the Tide's second game in the Georgia Dome this season. Alabama opened the season on September 5 with a 34-24 win over No. 7 Virginia Tech in the 2009 Chick-fil-A College Kickoff and returns to Atlanta this weekend for the SEC Championship Game. The two Georgia Dome appearances mark the eighth time in school history that Alabama has played two games in the same stadium in the same season. Alabama has also played two games in the same season at Grant Field (1942), Tulane Stadium (1947), the Orange Bowl (1952), the Astrodome (1970), Mississippi Memorial Stadium (1982), the Superdome (1992) and the Georgia Dome (2008 and 2009).

2009	Georgia Dome	Atlanta	Alabama 34, Virginia Tech 24 Alabama vs. Florida (Dec. 5 - SEC Championship Game)

DOME SWEET DOME: Alabama is 10-5-1 all-time in domed stadiums. The 2009 SEC Championship Game is the Tide's second game in a domed stadium this season and its fifth in the last two seasons. In addition to the SEC Championship Game, Alabama opened the season with a 34-24 win over No. 7 Virginia Tech in the Chick-fil-A College Classic at the Georgia Dome on Sept. 5. The Crimson Tide played three games in dome stadiums last season, including the 2008 Chick-fil-A College Classic (Clemson), the SEC Championship Game (Florida) and the Allstate Sugar Bowl (Utah). Alabama is 1-3 in SEC Championship Games played in the Georgia Dome, playing Florida in 1994, 1996, 1999 and 2008. Alabama is 6-1 (.857) in games played at the Louisiana Superdome, including a 5-1 (.833) mark in Sugar Bowl games.

GEORGIA ON MY MIND: Alabama is 30-28-3 all-time in games played in the state of Georgia, including a 3-1 mark the last two seasons. The Crimson Tide went 2-1 in the state of Georgia last year with wins over Clemson (Georgia Dome) and Georgia and a loss to Florida in the SEC Championship Game. Alabama opened the 2009 season with a 34-24 win over Virginia Tech in the Georgia Dome. The Crimson Tide owns a 17-16-3 record in the city of Atlanta and has won seven of its last 10 games played there. Alabama is 13-10 in games played in Athens and 0-2 in Columbus.

College 122-50-1 (.708)
Total 137-67-1 (.671)

• Saban brings a 122-50-1 (.708) record as a college head coach into his third season in Tuscaloosa. He has three conference championships and nine teams have played in post-season bowl games, including a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl last season.

• Saban is one of two (Bob Stoops, Oklahoma) current Football Bowl Subdivision coach to coach for at least 10 years and not suffer a losing season. In 2008, Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history as Alabama went from seven wins in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008. He also garnered six national coach of the year awards last year, including the Home Depot Coach of the year, the FWAA/Eddie Robinson, Associated Press, Sporting News, Walter Camp and Liberty Mutual. Saban also spent a little time behind the camera during the offseason. He flew to Los Angeles and film an ESPN College GameDay commercial with Kirk Herbstreit and Chris Fowler. Saban also filmed scenes for the movie Blindside, which chronicles the life of former Mississippi offensive tackle Michael Oher.

• His most recent college head coaching stint, a five-season run at LSU, produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC West Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games including two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. The Tigers constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by the Birmingham News in 2001 and by the Associated Press in 2003).

• Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in just one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record as head coach.

• In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking as MSU finished in a tie for second in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season. The Spartans' performance that year landed them a spot in the Citrus Bowl. The Spartans led the Big Ten in rushing defense (77.0 yards per game) and total defense (299.0 yards per game) while ranking fifth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense. The Michigan State offense averaged 31.0 points per game.

• Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points), and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

• A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born October 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen.

• Saban also is a published author. He co-authored "Tiger Turnaround" in 2001, a book documenting his first two years as head coach at LSU, and co-authored "How Good Do You Want to Be" in 2005, a book that offers real-life principles for success at work and at home.

• At Michigan State, Saban started the "Nick's Kids" Foundation, which the Sabans continue here in Tuscaloosa. Since their arrival at the University of Alabama, the Saban's have helped raise more than $1 million - including more than $300,000 this year - for "Nick's Kids" and made a total of more than 160 donations to children's charities throughout the state of Alabama.

• Saban and his wife, Terry, supported several charitable and civic projects in Louisiana. The largest of those efforts was with the Children's Miracle Network, for which Terry and Nick raised more than $100,000 a year for children.

• Saban was on the cover of the Sept. 1 issue of Forbes magazine. The article, written by Monte Burke, examines Saban and his guidance of Crimson Tide program. The cover features Saban with Bryant-Denny Stadium in the background. Saban is the first college football coach to be featured on the cover of Forbes since the publication began in 1917.

• The Saban's pledged $1 million to the University for scholarships in June of 2008. The Saban scholarships are designed specifically for first-generation college students. Six first-generation college students have already benefitted from the $100,000 gift the Saban's made upon their arrival at the Capstone in January 2007.

HISTORY OF ALABAMA FOOTBALL

- The University of Alabama is in its 115th football season and has compiled an 811-316-43 (.712) all-time record in 1,169 games.
- Alabama won its 800th game on Sept. 5, 2009, with a 34-24 win over No. 7 Virginia Tech in the Chick-fil-A College Kickoff at the Georgia Dome in Atlanta. The Tide is the seventh program in Football Bowl Subdivision history to win 800 games.
- The Crimson Tide played its first football game on Nov. 11, 1892, with a 56-0 win over Birmingham High School in Birmingham.
- Alabama is fifth among Division I schools in terms of all-time wins.
- The Crimson Tide football legacy includes 12 national championships, 21 SEC championships and 92 All-Americans.
- UA also ranks among the best in post-season play, holding the NCAA record for most bowl games (56) and most bowl wins (31).
- Alabama ranks second all-time in NCAA history with 30 10-win seasons. Alabama's enduring success on the gridiron is further reflected in the fact that the Crimson Tide has recorded seasons with 10 or more wins in nine different decades since the first double-digit win season in 1920 (10-1).
- Alabama has compiled a 355-159-20 (.684) record in 534 SEC games since 1933.
- Alabama has played in more SEC games (534), has more wins (355) and has won more league titles (21) than any team in SEC history. The Tide also has more SEC wins than Kentucky, Vanderbilt, Arkansas and South Carolina combined.
- Alabama is the only SEC school to win a championship in every decade since the 1930s. The Crimson Tide's last SEC Championship came in 1999.
- Alabama became the first team in NCAA history to win 100 games in a decade in the 1970s. The Crimson Tide posted a 103-16-1 (.863) record from 1970-79, which included eight SEC Championships and three national titles.

BRYANT-DENNY STADIUM

- Alabama's on-campus home since 1929, Bryant-Denny Stadium is one of college football's most scenic venues.
- The Crimson Tide has compiled an all-time record of 225-46-3 (.827) in 274 games at Bryant-Denny Stadium.
- The stadium was originally named for former University of Alabama President Dr. George H. Denny. Dr. Denny was named UA President on Jan. 1, 1912 and amassed an extraordinary career that spanned almost a quarter of a century.
- Bryant-Denny Stadium and Denny Chimes (located on the UA quadrangle) stand as reminders of Denny's legacy to the Capstone.
- In 1976, the State of Alabama Legislature and the UA Board of Trustees added coach Paul "Bear" Bryant's name to the stadium, thus calling Alabama's football home Bryant-Denny Stadium.
- Alabama's Sept. 2, 2006 season opener against Hawai'i drew a state-record 92,138 fans. The previous Bryant-Denny Stadium record was 86,869 on October 23, 1999, against Tennessee.

ALL-TIME TUSCALOOSA RECORD

- In addition to its impressive record at Bryant-Denny Stadium (1929-present), Alabama has made Tuscaloosa a very difficult place to play for opposing football teams.
- Alabama has compiled a 310-59-3 (.837) record in 372 games in Tuscaloosa. The Crimson Tide captured their 300th win in Tuscaloosa on Oct. 18, 2008, vs. Mississippi.
- Alabama's first game on campus was a 4-0 loss to Birmingham Athletic Club on Oct. 14, 1893.
- From 1911-28, Alabama posted a 55-2 (.965) record in Tuscaloosa. The 1929 season marked the opening of what is now known as Bryant-Denny Stadium.
- Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant posted a remarkable 72-2 (.973) record in Tuscaloosa, losing only to Florida (1963) and Southern Miss (1982). The USM game was the last game Bryant coached at Bryant-Denny Stadium.
- From 1963-82, Alabama posted an NCAA record 57-game home winning streak.
- Miami has since broken that record with a 58-game home winning streak, but the Hurricanes' record also includes three wins in the post-season Orange Bowl game. All of UA's 57 wins were in the regular season.
- The 57-game winning streak is one of seven winning streaks longer than 15 games for the Crimson Tide in Tuscaloosa.
- Alabama posted a 19-game unbeaten streak in Tuscaloosa from 1928-35.
- The Crimson Tide currently have a 14-game winning streak at Bryant-Denny Stadium.
